544 MILLION HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER WILL BE THE NEWEST ADDITION TO UNIATHLETIC FACILITIES

An Artist's Rendering of the New High Altitude Performance Center

High Altitude Performance Center

In the spring of 2015, the University of Wyoming launched an exciting initiative for a new $44 million state-of-the-art High Altitude Performance Center. The new facility will be located at the north end zone of War Memorial Stadium, and will increase the existing Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) from 48,000 square feet to 126,000 square feet. The project will be funded by a $24 million private support campaign and a $20 million State of Wyoming matching program. The matching program was established by Wyoming Governor Matt Mead and the Wyoming State Legislature.

Head Coach Craig Bohl at Press Conference Announcing New High Altitude Performance Center

Craig Bohl addressed the media at the April 13, 2015, press conference announcing the initiative for a new High Altitude Performance Center.

April Brimmer Kunz Represented her mother Marian Rochelle at the April Announcement

April Brimmer Kunz represented her family at the April 2015 press conference where a $3 million leadership gift was made by her mother Marian Rochelle.

That gift will be matched by the State of Wyoming to become $6 million.

The Cowboy Sports Network

WAB Hall of Fame Announcers Dave Walsh and Kevin McKinney to Call Games Again in 2015

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games may be heard live on the affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

Dave Walsh will be calling Cowboy games for his 32nd season in 2015. He will be joined by longtime Cowboy color analyst Kevin McKinney, who will be adding color commentary on Wyoming Football games for the 18th consecutive season. McKinney will be entering his 43rd year as color analyst on Cowboy Basketball broadcasts in 2015-16.

Walsh and McKinney were inducted into the Wyoming Association of Broadcasters (WAB) Hall of Fame in the summer of 2015.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Walsh received his degree in radio and television in 1975 from San Diego State. He was the sports director at KVOC Radio in Casper, Wyo., prior to joining the Cowboys. He is a nine-time Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year as selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

McKinney, a Cheyenne native and University of Wyoming graduate, has also been honored during his distinguished career as a Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year. McKinney serves as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at UW.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA or S lots on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA or S lots may both be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA or S parking lots.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birleffi Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running playby-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, ISDN lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 1-800-WYO-FAN1 or 307-766-4850, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Postgame Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the respective team interview areas with two minutes remaining in the game. Requested Cowboy players and Head Coach Craig Bohl will be escorted to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) War Room following the 10-minute cooling off period. Opponent players and head coach will meet with media members in War Memorial Fieldhouse following the cooling off period.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice sesson.

Craig Bohl Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the Rochelle Athletics Center. Bohl will also be available via teleconference during the press conference. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Interviews

Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media for individual interviews each Monday following Coach Bohl's press conference.

Media need to submit specific player and assistant coach interview requests to Tim Harkins of the UW Media Relations Office by phone or e-mail no later than 1 p.m. on Sundays for the Monday interviews.

It is requested that media conduct their interviews on Mondays. If there are student-athletes and assistant coaches unable to meet an interview request on Monday due to a scheduling conflict, those student-athletes and coaches will be made available Tuesday.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Media Teleconferences

A teleconference will be included as a part of Craig Bohl's Monday press conferences during the season, giving those media, unable to attend, an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the Cowboy head coach.

For detailed information on teleconferences and how to connect to the calls, contact the UW Media Relations Office at (307) 766-2256

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

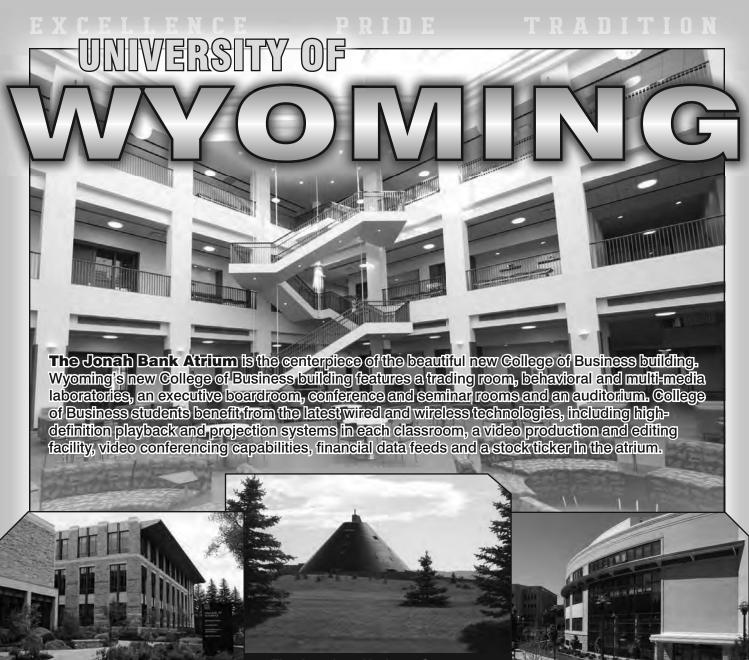

The Roy & Caryl Cline President's Room in the Gateway Center

Opened in the fall of 2014, the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center was built to be a "Gateway" to the University of Wyoming. It houses the UW Foundation, Alumni Association, Admissions Office and Career Services Center. The Gateway Center serves as a fantastic recruiting tool for UW Athletics. The Cowboy Football team hosts recruiting functions in the Gateway Center, and the President's Room in the Gateway Center serves as the location for the Craig Bohl TV Show that airs on ROOT SPORTS Rocky Mountain during the football season.

Wyoming's College of Business Construction of the New College of Business Building was completed in the Fall of 2010 The American Heritage Center, Home to UW's Art Gallery and Archives

The College of Health Sciences

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 13,551. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union.

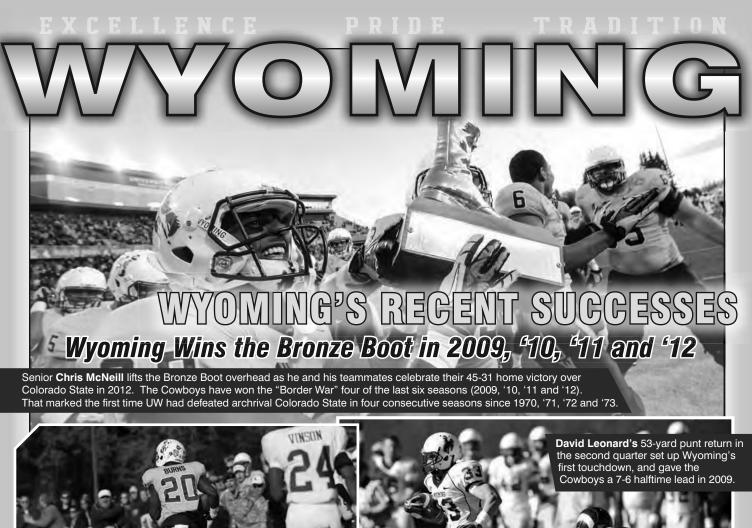

Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

with members of the Haitian American Football Association (HAFA). Lyonel Narcisse is standing in the middle of the photo holding a framed certificate from the HAFA.

> The 2010 college football season started on a sad note for the Wyoming Cowboys when the Monday following their season opener linebacker Narcisse was killed in an early morning car accident on Labor Day, Sept. 6, 2010. Narcisse was a 19-year old freshman from Miami, Fla.

While Narcisse played his high school football at Chaminade-Madonna Prep in Miami, his family is originally from Haiti. His father Lyonel continues to return to his native country to help in the rebuilding efforts following the tragic 2010 earthquake in Haiti that left 200,000 people dead and 1.6 million homeless.

It was decided in the winter of 2012, that the Cowboy football team would go to Haiti to aid in the ongoing relief efforts. The Wyoming Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes has organized the

The Wyoming group also worked with another ministry, Love a Child, which reaches out to Haiti's most vulnerable youth through a variety of ministries including an orphanage, rural outreach programs, food distribution, medical care and a soccer league ministry.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

On May 30, 2014, approximately 60 University of Wyoming football student-athletes accompanied by several other university employees and students traveled over the Snowy Range to help the community of Saratoga, Wyo., fight off flooding from the North Platte River.

Spring runoff from melting snow and rainstorms had swelled the North Platte River that runs through downtown Saratoga. Wyoming National Guard units had already been in town for several days working to assist the community in its battle against the river.

One of the Cowboy volunteers who traveled to Saratoga to help was senior free safety Darrenn White.

"The reason we came is to help out the people in this community," White said. "We want to support them. I'm really enjoying it, and I'm glad to help out any way we can."

Wyoming Cowboys and other volunteers help unload a truck stacked with sand bags to use in constructing barriers to prevent flooding.

In 2007, Devin Moore ran away from #91 Chris Long and the Virginia defense as the Cowboys defeated the Cavaliers, 23-3, before a sellout crowd in Laramie.

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual FBS national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 11 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008);
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007);
- •Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005) and
- •UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004).

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 18 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010), Nebraska (2011), Michigan State (2014) and Oregon (2014).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Washington State (2015, 2018); Nebraska (2016); Iowa (2017); Oregon (2017); Missouri (2018, 2019); Texas Tech (2020, 2022); and Clemson (2021). Oregon, Washington State, Missouri and Texas Tech are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

ROOT

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country — and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28. The Cowboys and Temple Owls once again began the college bowl season in 2011 on ESPN in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes partnerships with CBS Sports Network, ESPN and ROOT SPORTS.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, in 2010, CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

National Football Foundation

The University of Wyoming is proud to have six former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney, Pat Dye, Bowden Wyatt and William H. "Lone Star" Dietz, and former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom and Jay Novacek have all been elected to the distinguished Hall. Dietz became the most recent Wyoming inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame as he was inducted during ceremonies in July of 2012 as a part of the Hall's 2012 Divisional Class. Dietz coached the Cowboys for three seasons from 1924-26. During his career which spanned from 1915-42, he also served as the head coach at Washington State, Purdue, Louisiana Tech, Haskell Indian Institute and Albright (Po.) building a career received of 05 63.7 (1903). Institute and Albright (Pa.), building a career record of 96-62-7 (.603).

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

Two scholar-athletes from each of the five Wyoming high school classifications and the University of Wyoming are honored each year at the Wyoming Chapter's annual banquet. In the Wyoming Chapter's history, it has received 46 nominations for UW football student-athletes and 1,207 nominations for High School football players for its annual scholarship awards program. A total of $220,950 in scholarships has been awarded to High School and UW Scholar-Athletes. The high school recipients have represented 58 of Wyoming's 63 high schools that play football.

The Wyoming Chapter has had three West Regional Winners and three Regional Runners-up, competing against 25 other chapters in the West. That speaks volumes for the outstanding young men in Wyoming. Former Cowboy Football player Justin Hopkin from Burlington, Wyo., won the West Region High School Award in 1996. Another former Cowboy, Chris Prosinski of Buffalo, Wyo., was the NFF West Regional High School winner in 2006. Gavin Mills from Powell, Wyo., won the NFF West Regional High School Award in 2009.

Former Cowboy, John Wendling, was one of only 17 national finalists for the 2006 Draddy Trophy. The Draddy Trophy, which was renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often called the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded annually to the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation. By being named one of the Draddy finalists in '06, Wendling received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the NFF.

Wendling was also the first individual to be both a Wyoming NFF Chapter High School scholarship winner, as well as a Wyoming Chapter College scholarship winner. Jake Edmunds a UW graduate in 2009 and Chris Prosinski in 2010 were the second and third individuals to be honored as both a Wyoming high school and University of Wyoming Scholar-Athlete Finalist.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 121 chapters. - Twice Named AFCA Region Coach of the Year at Wyoming

Some of the greatest names in college football have held the postion of head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys. Bowden Wyatt, Phil Dickens, Bob Devaney, Lloyd Eaton, Fred Akers, Paul Roach and Joe Tiller have all led the Cowboy Football program to exciting victories, conference championships and bowl games as head coach of the Cowboys.

Four former Wyoming head coaches have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those three are; Wyatt, who was inducted in 1997; Devaney, inducted in 1981; Pat Dye, who went on to great success at Auburn and was inducted in 2005; and Lone Star Dietz in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

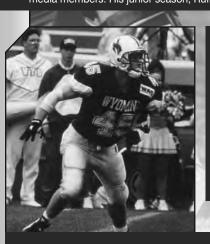

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997. The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, and is pursuing a master's degree in environmental engineering with a focus on nano-particle research.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice.

Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

Hampshire Honor Society

Beginning in 2007, the National Football Foundation created the Hampshire Honor Society to honor college football players across the country who achieved both on and off the football field.

Wyoming has had players receive the honor in eight of the first nine years of the award's existence. Those former Cowboy honorees are listed below.

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to manage his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

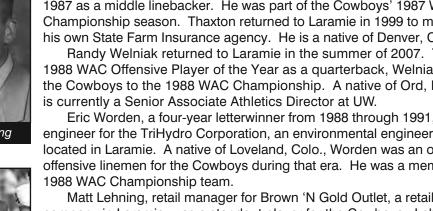

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, retail manager for Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MWC free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

Julius Stinson was a First Team All-Conference cornerback in 2007, and was one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe award, which honors the top defensive back in the nation each season. Stinson currently works for Cathedral Home for Children in Laramie.

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, the late Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

For the 2013 college football season, a brand new FieldTurf Revolution playing surface with a distinctive Wyoming design was unveiled on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. The new surface was installed in June 2013, and was selected by Wyoming Athletics due to its elite-level playability. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs Susie and the late Mick McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artifical turf was completed in August of 2005. The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The new elements of the 2013 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic Teton Mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a new western-style font. Also new is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate. The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Manager for FieldTurf, Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State "Border War" football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the "Border War" every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2015 season will mark the 70th consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. In fact, this is one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi River. This year will mark the 107th meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the "Bronze Boot", traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnam by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC graduate. The boot has rested in UW's possession in 24 of the 47 years since its inception.

The "Bronze Boot" has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year's 2015 meeting will be the 48th time the trophy has been fought over.

The statue "Fanning a Twister", depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created "Fanning a Twister".

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER —

SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture "Cowboy Tough" was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch "Cowboy Tough" as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse "Steamboat" at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state's automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse "Deadman" with a rider by the name of "Stub" Farlow atop it. "Deadman" was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of "Deadman" and Farlow for the design of the state's license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW's athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is "Steamboat" or "Deadman", the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and lowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict. Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty - values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart. The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium".

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S.

Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a recent game.

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the

The Plaza is separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you look north, the section on the right displays flags of every military branch; Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also features a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displays the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War Il on September 23, 1950, also is located there, as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans' celebration).

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

AT WAR MEMORIAL LOBBY

THE ROACH YEARS

Paul and Marge Roach

"This state, the University, and the intercollegiate athletics program have always been very special to my family," said Roach at the dedication of Roach Hall. "We will always cherish our association with the great fans of Wyoming."

Paul Roach Highlights

As an assistant coach, head coach and athletics director at the University of Wyoming, Paul Roach was a part of six of Wyoming's 13 bowl teams and six of seven Western Athletic Conference Championships. Among his other accomplishments was establishment of the UW Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

STADIUM GLU

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

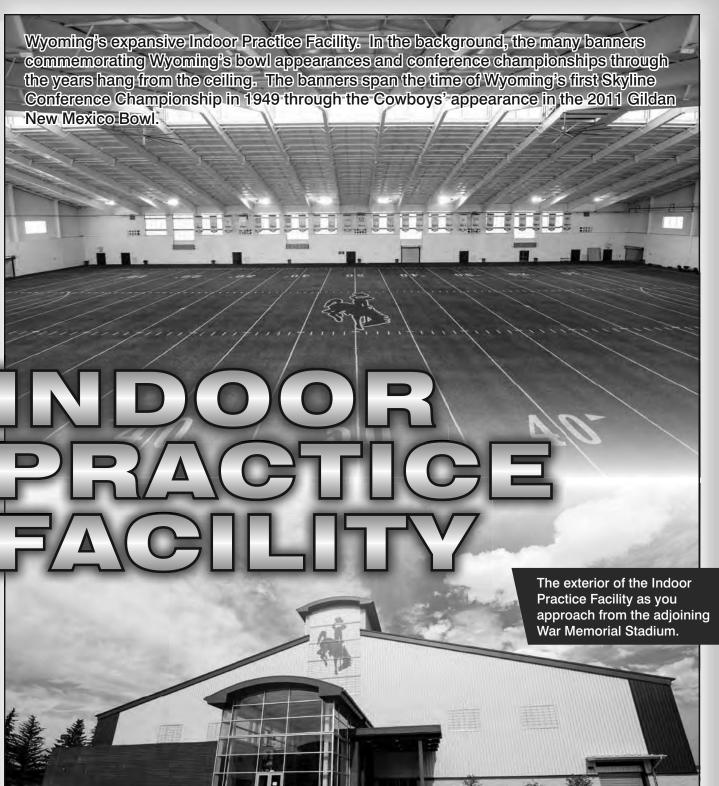

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature. The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

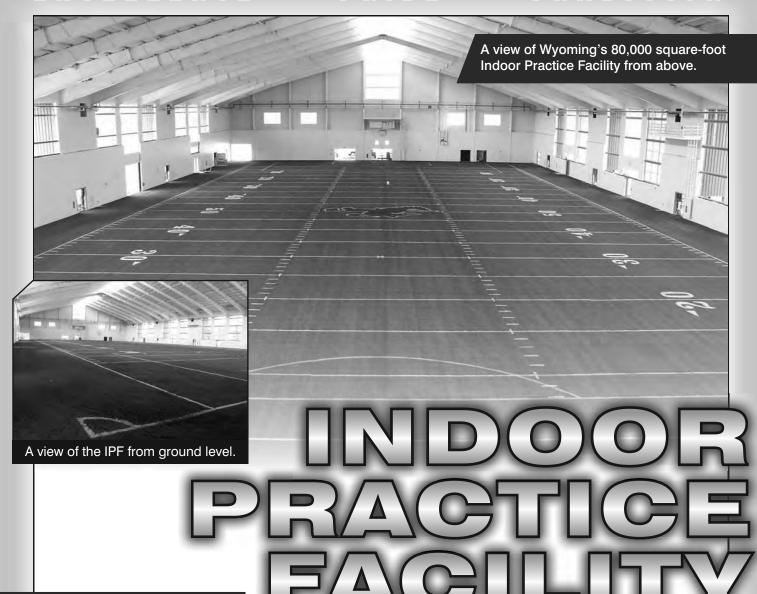

In the fall of 2007, Wyoming's new Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) opened for use. Containing over 80,000 square feet, the facility includes a full-size 100-yard by 50-yard football field, featuring a state-of-the-art artificial turf surface.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

ATHLETICS CENTER

The Rochelle Athletics Center as Seen From War Memorial Stadium

The proximity of the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) and Indoor Practice Facility to War Memorial Stadium make the UW Football Complex one of the finest in the country. The RAC and Indoor Practice Facility are pictured here in a photo taken from the west upper deck of War Memoral Stadium.

The University of Wyoming has experienced remarkable success nationally through the years on the field and in the classroom. The Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) ensures a continuation of that success, as well as enhancing the Cowboys' reputation across the country. The Rochelle Athletics Center has allowed UW to continue its tradition of providing quality academic programs side-by-side with a quality football program.

Thanks to a $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, the largest in school history at the time, the facility began construction in May of 2000. It was completed in August of 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. The project was funded totally by private donations.

Located just north of War Memorial Stadium, the RAC occupies 46,140 square feet. It includes a state-of-the-art sports medicine and treatment center, a strength and conditioning center, an academic and counseling area and large meeting rooms.

The expanded academic support area provides a full range of services for student-athletes. Included are networked computer stations, a student counseling area and study tables.

A broader scope and greater availability of sports medicine services includes space for treatment, practice preparation, examination/diagnosis and hydrotherapy. The strength and conditioning center allows improved weight and agility training for the Cowboys.

"We wanted our gift to help create a lasting athletic legacy for the University and for the State of Wyoming," Rochelle said after presenting the gift. "The University of Wyoming has had a major influence in our lives. We are proud to be a part of the tradition of academic and athletic excellence at the University of Wyoming."

Born in Lusk, Wyo., Rochelle received a B.S. degree in animal science from UW in 1941. While a student, he was president of his senior class.

Rochelle served as a UW Trustee from 1983 through 1989, and received a UW Trustee Award of Merit. In 1994, he was awarded the UW Medallion Service Award recognizing his outstanding service and dedication to the University. Marian, a native of Denver, is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

Curtis Rochelle passed away in the spring of 2005.

Strength and Conditioning Facility

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

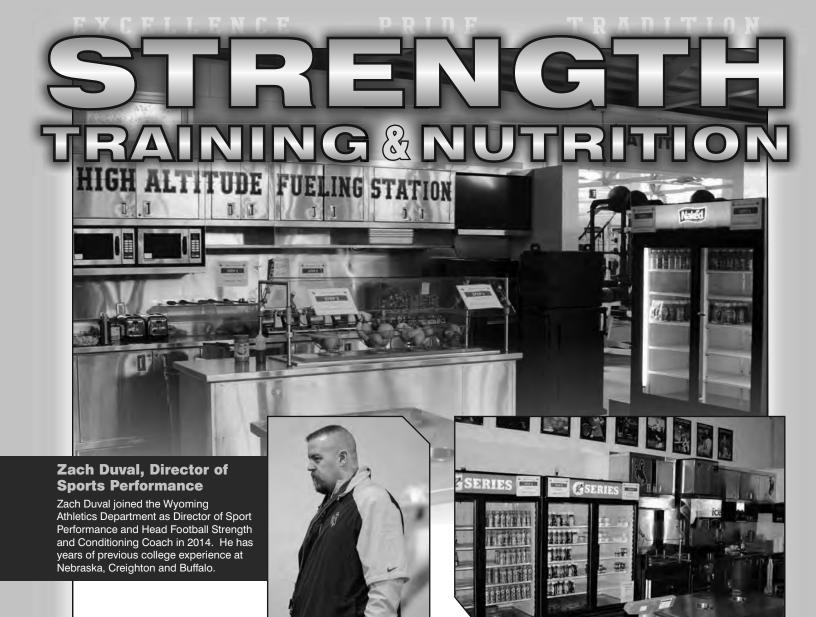

FAGILITY

The Rochelle Athletics Center Strength and Conditioning Facility

By having access to the best in equipment and strength-training personnel, Wyoming student-athletes are offered the tools to reach their full potential athletically.

The strength and conditioning facility within the Rochelle Athletics Center is spread out over a spacious 8,633 square feet. It houses state-of-the art strength-training equipment and allows for Wyoming student-athletes to work out in a comfortable atmosphere.

The new Nutrition Center within the Rochelle Athletics Center Strength and Conditioning Area allows for all UW student-athletes to optimize their physical performance for workouts and competition and maintain their minds and bodies at peak condition.

Wyoming's strength and conditioning program is led by Director of Strength and Conditioning Zach Duval. Zach Duval became Wyoming's new Director of Sports Performance and Head Football Strength Coach in 2014 after serving in the same role at the University of Buffalo for four seasons from 2010-13.

While at Buffalo, Duval coached All-America linebacker Khalil Mack. Mack, who earned First Team All-America honors his senior season, was taken as the fifth overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders.

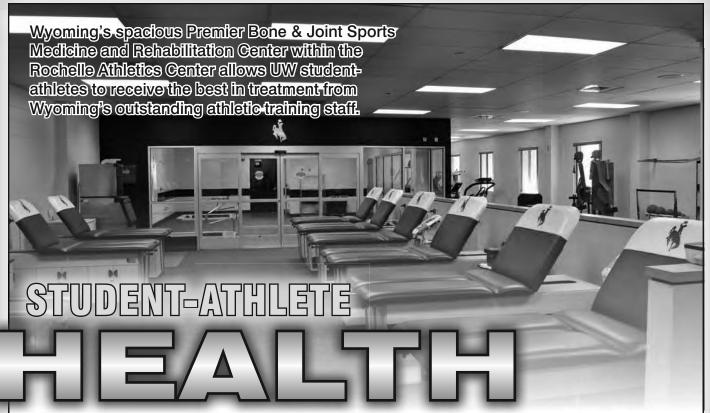

Duval brings a wealth of experience in strength and conditioning both at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level and in private business.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in the University of Nebraska "Husker Power" strength training program from 1995-96. Duval was elevated to the position of football strength coach at Nebraska from 1997-2002. During his eight years with the Huskers, NU won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

In 2002, Duval entered private business, founding the Xplosive Edge performance center. His company developed specialized computer software to be utilized by strength-training professionals. During his time in private business, he co-owned and managed The Performance and Wellness Institute in Greeley, Colo. He returned to Nebraska for the 2008 season.

Prior to taking over as Director of Sports Performance at Buffalo, Duval was the Director of Athletic Performance at Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. He also had oversight over nutrition for the Bluejays' athletics teams for the 2009-10 academic year.

He and his staff not only coordinate workouts for UW student-athletes, but they also consult with Wyoming student-athletes on how to maximize their health and performance by effectively managing their diet and nutrition.

Hydrotherapy Area

During the 2012-13 season, the Bruce Pivic Family made a generous donation to enhance the RAC athletic training center, including a complete renovation of Wyoming's hydrotherapy area. The hydrotherapy area, contained within the sports medicine center, assists student-athletes in prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries.

Underwater Treadmill

In 2014, a new underwater treadmill pool was added to the hydrotherapy area to further aid all UW student-athletes in injury treatment and rehabilitation. This new pool also features an underwater camera system that allows the athletic-training staff to evaluate and monitor rehab sessions on the treadmill.

The Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center, located in Wyoming's Rochelle Athletics Center, contains 4,829 square feet.

The University of Wyoming athletic-training staff utilize the most current preventive and rehabilitative techniques in treating UW student-athletes.

A staff of five full-time, certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistants and student athletic trainers work to meet the needs of Wyoming's student-athletes.

rehabilitation through their main clinic located in Laramie, Wyo.

In addition to the seven physicians, the main clinic in Laramie contains over 33,000 square feet and employs a staff of over 120 administrative and clinical personnel.

The clinic was founded in 1973 by Dr. David A. Kieffer. In 1976, Dr. Robert J. Curnow joined Kieffer in the practice, which they renamed "Gem City Bone & Joint." Kieffer and Curnow served as the team physicians for University of Wyoming athletics teams for many years. Following Kieffer's and Curnow's retirements as senior team physicians, Dr. Jay Carson and Dr. Ryan Aukerman assumed those duties in August 2008. Carson stepped down as a team physician in 2011. Aukerman now serves as the Head Team Physician. He is joined by Dr. Mark McKenna in treating University of Wyoming student-athletes.

Premier Bone & Joint Centers serves patients throughout the state of Wyoming, western Nebraska, western South Dakota and northeastern Colorado through 11 locations in: Laramie, Casper, Cheyenne, Douglas, Gillette, Green River, Rawlins, Riverton, Rock Springs, Torrington and Wheatland.

Premier's staff of orthopedic physicians specialize in treatment of virtually every area of the body, including: elbow; foot and ankle; hand; wrist; knee; shoulder; neck; and spine.

As a demonstration of its support of UW Athletics, Premier Bone & Joint Centers made a major commitment of support to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) at the University of Wyoming for a medical treatment facility. In recognition of that support, the medical area of the RAC is named the "Premier Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center." The financial arrangement with Premier benefitted UW Athletics in the amount of $750,000.

CONVERSITY OF CONTROL OF CONTROL

PLAZA

The "Cowboy Walk" is a pregame tradition that began in 2009. The Cowboy Football team, led by the Western Thunder marching band and cheerleaders, walks from its team hotel located at the University of Wyoming Conference Center, into War Memorial Stadium prior to each home game as Wyoming fans cheer on the Pokes.

University of Wyoming Plaza

In December of 2005, development of the University of Wyoming Plaza Commercial Shops began. The Plaza has had numerous shops open since 2008, with additional shops expected to be added in the future.

Currently the UW Plaza includes such businesses as Chili's, Coal Creek Coffee, Great Clips, Jimmy John's Gourmet Sandwiches, McAlister's Deli and Union Wireless. There is a total of 58,000 square feet available for retail shops and restaurants and another 30,000 square feet of Class A office space available for sale or lease.

University of Wyoming Apartments

Located north and east of the UW Plaza are the University Apartments at the University of Wyoming that provide housing for families, married couples and single parents.

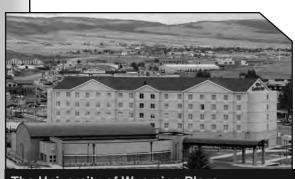

The anchor for the University of Wyoming Plaza Development is the Hilton Garden Inn. The Hilton Garden Inn opened in the spring of 2008, and includes 135 guest rooms and the 22,000 square foot University of Wyoming Conference and Education Center.

Beginning in the fall of 2009, the Wyoming Cowboy Football team began spending Friday nights before home games at the Hilton.

"POKE PREGAME ZONE" TO PROVIDE NEW TAILGATING EXPERIENCE FOR WYOMING FOOTBALL FANS

"Fan Fest" and "Tailgate Alley" to be New Features for All Cowboy Home Games

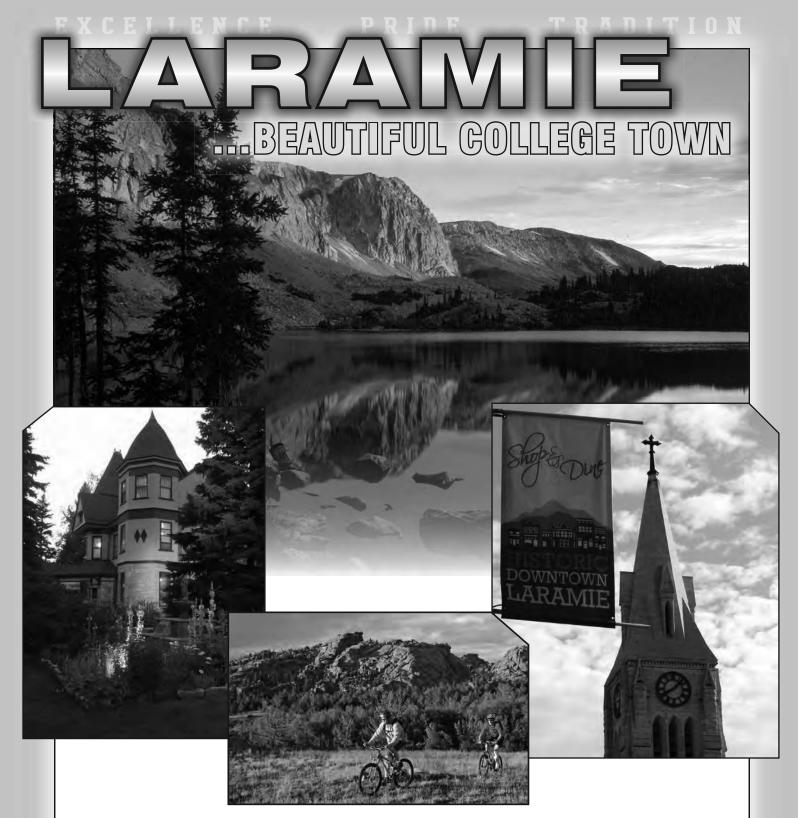

Wyoming football fans were offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the "Poke Pregame Zone" kicked off a new era of Cowboy Football. The "Poke Pregame Zone" shifted the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and incorporated a new "Tailgate Alley" adjacent to the Indoor Practice Facility.

"Fan Fest" was held for all six home games in 2014. It was open to all fans, and kicked off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids' games and activities, live music and televised national football games were featured for fans' enjoyment.

"Taligate Alley", adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, was a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in "Tailgate Alley" are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now for the coming season.

The "Poke Pregame Zone" provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans -- many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

WYOMING FOOTBATL FATERS SECOND YEAR OF BUILDING PROCESS UNDER HEAD COACH GRAIG BOHL

All-America Candidate Eddie Yarbrough at Defensive End and Dynamic Running Game Will Play Key Roles in 2015 Campaign for Cowboys

senior season with 2.082 career

rushing yards and needs only 42

106 receiving yards.

Along with these three talented

The 2015 season is one that Wyoming coaches and players alike are looking forward to kicking off. With a year under their belts of installing new offensive, defensive and special teams systems and blending another recruiting class into the talent already on the roster, the Cowboy coaching staff and players are excited about taking the program to the next phase of building a consistent contender in the Mountain West Conference.

"Familiarity with our players and our players familiarity with our coaches has been a big advantage for us as we prepare for our second season here at Wyoming," said head coach Craig Bohl. "Add to that the understanding our players have of the fundamentals of our offense, defense and kicking game and we are much further ahead than we were a year ago.

"While those things may sound elementary, they're really not. They are the foundation of how we go about improving.

"Having another recruiting class also adds to the talent we already have here. I believe there are some of these young players who may make an immediate impact, while others will add instant depth to our program.

"We're pleased with the direction of our program as we prepare for our second season, but there is a lot of work to do. We're moving in the right direction."

Players who are expected to play key roles in helping move the Cowboys in the right direction are senior All-America candidate Eddie Yarbrough at defensive end and the running-back tandem of senior Shaun Wick and sophomore Brian Hill.

Yarbrough was selected First Team All-Mountain West each of the past two seasons, and was named to the Rotary Lombardi Award watch list and the Ted Hendricks Award watch list last season as a junior. He returns as one of the top defensive linemen in the nation. Among all active NCAA players entering the 2015 season, Yarbrough ranks No. 15 in the NCAA in career tackles for loss (28.5), and he ranks No. 6 in that category among returning defensive linemen.

Wick and Hill combined for 1,589 rushing yards last season and eight 100-yard rushing games between the two of them.

Wick had four 100-yard rushing games including: 134 yards vs. Montana, 122 yards at Oregon, 111 yards vs. Florida Atlantic and 121 yards at Hawai'i before breaking his hand on the first possession of the eighth game of the season at Colorado State, causing him to miss the next three games. He enters his rushing yards to move into the Wyoming Career Top 10 list. Hill also had four 100yard games in 2014 as a true freshman. He rushed for 121 yards at Colorado State after taking over for the injured Wick, 281 vards at Fresno State. 122 yards vs. Utah State and 157 yards at New Mexico. Hill was selected the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Fresno State. He accounted for 387 all-purpose vards against the Bulldgos --281 rushing yards and Cowboys are a total of 10 returning starters and 37 returning lettermen.

Among the returning letterwinners are several individuals who gained valuable playing experience a year ago due to a rash of injuries suffered by Cowboy veterans. All told 13 different Cowboys missed a total of 47 games to injuries in the 2014 season.

While injuries were definitely a challenge faced by Bohl's first Cowboy team, the head coach, who is accustomed to competing for championships, made no excuses. He acknowledged the difficulty of losing so many players to injuries, but he was quick to point out the positives in his first season at Wyoming.

"The first year of a program can either be a frustrating year or a year that exceeded your expectations. I would say last year was frustrating for us," said Bohl. "We had many of our experienced players get injured, which was a challenge, but the bright side was we were able to play a lot of young players.

"The combination of those guys getting a lot of playing experience, the continuity of our coaching staff and the continuity in strength and conditioning gives us great promise as we go into this 2015 football season.

"We had a couple good wins last year over two bowl teams who are good programs in Air Force and Fresno State, but it was not near enough wins. I do think those wins gave us an indication of who we can become."

Another challenge faced by last year's team was a very difficult schedule that included road games at national runner-up Oregon and at Michigan State, which ended the season ranked No. 7 in the final 2014 polls.

ARBROUGH

In 2015, the Cowbovs will have the advantage of starting the season with two consecutive home games versus > the University of North Dakota and Eastern Michigan. The Pokes two other non-conference games will be on the road at Washington State and Appalachian State.

"Certainly we know quite a bit about the University of North Dakota, although we didn't play them when we were at North Dakota State," said Bohl. But we know they are a good team out of the Big Sky that has had some success. It will be a great opening game for us and a great time for our fans to come out and see our football team for the first time this year.

"Eastern Michigan is a school out of the MAC that we don't know a lot about. We've watched some things on tape. But it will be great to start the season with two home games.

"Then we'll travel to Washington State, a team that went to a bowl game just a couple seasons ago. It will be a tough game against a PAC-12 opponent in our first road trip of the year.

"We come back home and open up Mountain West play against New Mexico. It will be good to open conference play in War Memorial Stadium.

ENSIVE GUARD

"Appalachian State will be our final non-conference game on the road. I do know this, while they are in transition to the FBS level they won their last six games and have 22 starters back. It will be a challenging game.

"Then we return to conference play for the remainder of the season. We go to Air Force, and I think they probably made as big a turnaround as any team in our league last year. They got better as the year went along.

"We don't know a lot about our next opponent, Nevada, not having played them last year.

"Our next opponent, we know a lot about -- Boise State. They sit in the catbird seat in our conference, and they have built a program that has enjoyed success year after year.

"Utah State is a team that has their starting guarterback (Chuckie Keeton) back, and they will be good on defense again. That guarterback is one of the premier players in our league.

"Colorado State, we have them at home. They're our rival. We got taken to the woodshed a little bit last year, but our guys stayed in the fight. They (CSU) are going through a transition with a new coaching staff.

"San Diego State is up next -- coached by a very good coach in Rocky Long. They are always very competitive in our league, and then we have a late season bye before we finish up the season at home versus UNLV.

"I think the league will once again be very competitive on the Mountain side. The schools we're playing over on the West side all have good pedigrees and have been in bowl games.

"As a coaching staff, we have a better understanding of the Mountain West, having now competed in the league for one season,"

A big part of the building process is, of course, recruiting. Bohl and his staff have now put together two recruiting classes and have begun to lay the foundation for the program they want to establish at Wyoming. A program that Bohl is building with the long-term interests of the program in mind.

"This year's class will be the first true reflection of us recruiting to what we like to call the Wyoming Profile," said Bohl. "By that we mean a young man who wants to get a meaningful degree and have a laser-like focus on winning Mountain West championships.

"That is not to say that the upperclassmen on our team nor the members of our first recruiting class don't have that same focus. because I know they do from seeing how hard they've worked and how committed they are to our program.

"But recruiting is a full-year cycle, and this year's group of recruits is the first that we had an opportunity to evaluate for a complete year and to build relationships with for a full year. This is an explosive class, and we're convinced these guys will have an impact not only this year but for years to come. That also means it will increase the competition at all positions, which always makes your team better."

Bohl has been through the building process before as a head coach and the vision he has for bringing Wyoming Football back to prominence is very clear.

"There is greatness at the University of Wyoming," said Bohl. "What we're striving for as a program is to have long-term consistent success at the very top.

"To do that, you build a foundation, you have a clear vision and you stay the course. You stay the course in recruiting. You stay the course in the systems you run. Certainly, you are critical and always looking to improve. But there is a proven pattern of success that we as coaches see and provides us optimism for the future of Cowbov Football. What I can also say is that the proven success pattern does not happen overnight.

"We're in the middle of that process, and we're encouraged about the outlook for the 2015 football season."

OFFENSE

Quarterbacks

Who would emerge to take the reigns of the Wyoming offense in 2015 was the question on the minds of Cowboy Football fans entering spring football. Gone was redshirt senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard, who led the Pokes' offense in 2014. As 2015 spring drills progressed the individual who emerged as the projected starter at QB was another redshirt senior, Cameron Coffman.

Coffman, who transferred to Wyoming from Indiana University in the fall of 2014, brought with him a year of starting experience in the Big Ten. As a starter in 2012, Coffman completed 247-of-407 passes (60.7 percent) for 2,734 yards with 15 touchdown passes and 11 interceptions. He averaged 248.5 passing yards per game, and ranked second in the Big Ten in passing yards per game, completions and attempts, third in passing yards, tied for third in passing scores and fourth in total offense.

Battling with Coffman through spring drills were junior-college transfer Josh Allen. In his one year at Reedley College in California, Allen threw for 2,055 yards, 26 touchdowns and only five interceptions in 10 games. Allen also rushed for 660 yards on 120 carries, averaged 5.5 yards per carry and scored 10 rushing TDs. He led a Reedley offense that averaged 452.2 yards of total offense per game to rank No. 9 among all California junior-college teams in total offense.

"We feel good about Cam (Coffman)," said Bohl. "He is a redshirt senior in his fifth year. He has a great deal of experience in a couple different systems. That experience is going to prove beneficial for us.

"The challenge is he has not played at the University of Wyoming in this system, so even though he is a fifth-year senior he has not had five years in this program. However, it's not like he is a first-year starter either.

"We saw signs last fall and spring of his pocket presence, his ability to understand and read defenses, his decision-making ability and his ability to get rid of the ball quickly.

All of those things are encouraging. We're in hopes that with a year of experience in our system last year while he was redshirting, that he was given a big jump start on this coming season. He was able to learn our system, be in the position meetings and observe during games and that should be beneficial for him to hit the ground running when we kick the season off in September.

"We're also pleased with Josh (Allen). Josh has shown a tremendous amount of ability. He came in mid-year (from junior college). Typically a junior-college player will come in with two years of eligibility, but he only played one year at junior college, so he comes to us with three years available to play at Wyoming.

"He clearly established himself as the No. 2 player at that position. I think he has a big, big upside, however because of his lack of experience, he has to be refined a little bit. His arm strength is there, and he'll do some things that you cannot coach.

"Those two guys make us much deeper right away, which gives me much more confidence as we go into the season."

Redshirt freshman Nick Smith and junior Aaron Young round out the Cowboy quarterback quartet, and provide Bohl and his staff with added depth.

Running Backs

While the quarterback position was the biggest question entering last spring, the position that had no questions and returned perhaps the most talented group on the team was running back. Senior Shaun Wick and sophomore Brian Hill both return after extremely productive seasons in 2014. Bohl's offenses have in the past been very effective at featuring two running backs, and it would seem that he will have that option again in 2015. But the depth at running back doesn't end with Wick and Hill. Sophomore Joshua Tapscott, redshirt freshman Nico Evans and some incoming freshmen make running back a definite strength for the 2015 Cowboys.

"I think running back is the deepest position on our football team," said Bohl. "Shaun Wick proved last year to be extremely capable no matter what the competition level we went up against, whether it was some of the better defenses in the > Mountain West or Michigan State, which he had a long touchdown run against (57 yards). Certainly against Oregon he > > played well (122 yards rushing).

> > He is a proven, veteran player. He's a threat out of the backfield. He's a complete back. He possesses more speed that what people might think, and he's always moving forward.
> > We're real encouraged about the year Shaun had last year before we're real encouraged about the year Shaun had last year before he was injured, and we're excited to have him back fully healthy with the maturity level he brings to our team.

"Brian Hill is a young man who was somewhat of a heavily-recruited player when we signed him out of high school a year ago. We made the determination to play him as a true freshman last year because we thought he would

HILL RUNNING BACK year because we thought he would have an opportunity to help us and, lo and behold because of injuries, he proved to be our main guy at the end of the year.

"Brian gives us another proven player in the Mountain West Conference. He is a big, strong back, who also possesses good speed.

"In our system, we like to have a one-two punch and have two guys who are big-time hammers, which both Shaun and Brian are. The sticks are always moving forward with these two guys. Brian has probably picked up five lean, muscle-mass pounds (from 204 to 211), which is going to serve him well.

"Then you get to our third-string guy -- and we do feel we'll have a very competent third guy. Joshua Tapscott and Nico Evans are two guys who bring different things and different styles to the table. Josh is more of a physical runner, while Nico has the ability to make people miss and gives us that breakaway threat. We also have some freshmen coming in that we'll take a look at. It will be a very good competition for that spot."

Fullbacks

A key position in assuring that Wyoming's pro-style offense functions effectively is the fullback position. Last year, there weren't any scholarship players on the Cowboy roster who had been recruited to play fullback. Now, one year later, two Cowboys have emerged to fill the role very effectively. Sophomore Drew Van Maanen and junior Jordan Ellis both proved in 2014 they could be effective at blocking and catching the ball out of the backfield.

"Drew (Van Maanen) learned last year that fullback is a complicated position," said Bohl. "Beyond just being a physical player you have to have a clear understanding of what you're doing on each different run-blocking scheme. We also like our fullbacks to be able to come out of the backfield and catch the football.

"Jordan Ellis is another guy, along with Drew, who we put on scholarship this year based on his performance last season.

"Both of those guys are coming around nicely, and because of the progress they've made you'll see us play the fullback more this year."

While Wyoming's top two receivers from last year are gone in 2014 seniors Dominic Rufran and Jalen Claiborne, the Pokes return their next five top receivers led by 2015 juniors Tanner Gentry (32 catches for 435 yards) and Jake Maulhardt (21 receptions for 274 yards) at wide receiver, 2015 junior tight end Jacob Hollister (17 catches for 244 yards) and running backs Hill (13 receptions for 204 yards) and Wick (10 catches for 62 yards).

Knowing that wide receiver was a position hit hard by graduation, Wyoming signed five freshman receivers in this year's recruiting class, and some of those true freshmen may compete to play this season.

"We lost some good wide receivers from last year's team, and we're concerned about that spot," said Bohl. "Tanner Gentry did some really good things last year. Jake Maulhardt established himself later in the year as an effective receiver, so between those two juniors we have two very reliable targets.

"But you can't play with just two guys. It will be important for us to develop a third receiver. Tanner Simpson was limited during spring due to injury, so he wasn't able to show everything he is capable of. Tom Thornton moved over to receiver from quarterback in the spring and is still making that transition. We think the cavalry may be coming with some of our incoming freshmen.

"It may be the case that our freshmen group at wide receiver will have an opportunity to contribute right away more so than any position on our football team.

"Joe Parker is one of those freshman receivers. He was the only one who enrolled early and was with us throughout spring football. He did some really good things in spring. I anticipate he will be a contributor this coming season."

Tight Finds

Like fullback, the tight end position was thin a year ago as Bohl and his staff were faced with converting a roster made up of players recruited to play in Wyoming's previous spread offense and transition those players into the Cowboys' new pro-style offense. Hollister, who was recruited as a tight end in Bohl's first recruiting class, had a solid first season at Wyoming after transferring from Arizona Western Community College. A former Class 5A Player of the Year in the state of Oregon as a guarterback, Hollister switched to tight end in junior college. He led all Cowboy tight ends in receptions (17), receiving yards (244) and TD receptions (2) in 2014, and he continued to impress during 2015 spring drills. He will be joined at tight end by a pair of redshirt freshmen in Tyree Mayfield and Grant Lewis.

"Jake Hollister may have been our most improved player during spring ball," said Bohl. "He put on about 15 pounds of muscle. He's running real well. He catches the ball well, and has good blocking ability.

"Tyree Mayfield is a young guy who we planned on playing last year as a true freshman, but he wasn't able to play because of an injury. He came in this spring and did a really nice job

"And Grant Lewis is a second redshirt freshman who we believe will help us this coming season, so we will have three tight ends that we will be able to insert into the offense this season. We probably need another one, but we feel good about the progress we've made at the tight end position in one year."

ently extensito

Up front for the Cowboys, a solid core of experience returns on the offensive line. Bohl and his staff have been pleased with the progress made by the offensive line during the past year, including progress made during 2015 spring practice. Depth, however, will be the main concern.

"Offensive line is a position that may be the leanest, in terms of the number of experienced players returning to our team," said Bohl. "But we made significant progress in the offensive line during spring ball."

Going back to Bohl's first season at Wyoming, he stated that the offensive line would undergo the biggest transition of any position group on the team. That transition focused on converting a group trained to block in a spread offense to a group who would be asked to play a much more physical style in Wyoming's new pro-style offense.

Now one year later, Bohl feels the offensive line is headed in the right direction.

"We made a point of emphasis the very first day of spring football a year ago that of all the position groups on our team this one would probably have the biggest transition to make in year one," said Bohl. "We were asking them to change their mentality from blocking in a spread to now driving people off the line of scrimmage. We made good progress in year one, but we're not where we need to be. Our depth is certainly not where we want it yet, but we're starting to come off the line of scrimmage like we want a Wyoming Cowboy offensive line to come off the ball."

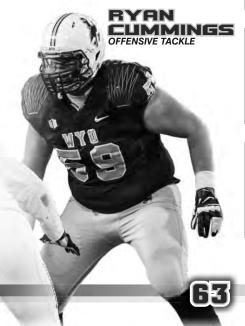

The group is led by Honorable Mention All-Mountain West performer Chase Roullier. Roullier, who has started the last 15 consecutive games for the Cowboys as he enters his junior year, will once again start at left offensive guard.

Next to him at left tackle will be sophomore Ryan Cummings. Cummings was inserted into the Wyoming starting lineup as a true freshman in 2014 and started the final seven games.

Center will be the position that will feature the most depth. Sophomore Charlie Renfree was listed as the projected starter coming out of spring drills. He is competing with senior Rafe Kiely for the starting spot. Kiely has 17 career starts to his credit, but missed part of 2015 spring football due to an injured hand that has since healed. Both of them could also see playing time at guard if need be.

The right side of the Cowboy offensive line will have new faces in the starting lineup. At right tackle, sophomore Taylor Knestis was listed No. 1 on the final spring depth chart. He battled with fellow sophomore Kurtis Stirneman throughout spring practice for the starting spot. Senior Troy Boyland is slotted as the projected starter at right guard entering fall camp. Boyland was moved over to the offensive line from defensive line this past offseason.

F-0-0-T-B-A-L-E

"Charlie Renfree has established himself as an excellent center. He has great mobility, excellent feet. That is going to give us an added dynamic. He had an improved focus this spring, which was really encouraging.

"Rafe (Kiely) is another experienced center, who has played a lot and we're going to figure him in the mix. Many times the individuals you have playing the center and guard positions can interchange, so that may come into play in terms of providing us depth this season.

"Right guard -- Troy Boyland did better than we expected after moving over from the defensive line.

"At the right tackle position, we have a couple guys who are fighting for that starting spot. Taylor Knestis showed some good things during spring ball. Kurtis Stirneman is the other guy who will figure in the mix there."

DEFENSE

The Cowboy defense has a clear leader entering 2015. Senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough will not only be the leader of the Wyoming defense, he will be one of the leading players in the Mountain West Conference and one of the top returning defensive linemen in the nation. He will also be part of the most experienced unit on the Cowboy defense -- the defensive line.

The Wyoming defense featured seven senior starters a year ago. Having lost that level of experience resulted in a movement of some of the top athletes on the roster from offense to defense this past offseason. Those athletes moved to the defensive side of the ball included: former running back D.J. May, who has been moved to linebacker/nickel back, and former tight end Eric Nzeocha, who was moved to middle linebacker.

A couple other players who played significant roles for the Cowboy defense last year switched positions in the spring. Those two were safeties Tim Kamana and Will Tutein, who were both moved to linebacker.

The secondary for the Pokes is best described by one word -- youth. The final spring depth chart was filled with sophomores and redshirt freshman and only one senior, cornerback Tyran Finley. There is also a possibility that one or more true freshmen may factor into the secondary once the season kicks off.

Defensive Line

In addition to Yarbrough, who has started the last 27 games at defensive end, three other Cowboys return with extensive playing experience. Junior defensive tackle Uso Olive started the final 11 games of his sophomore season and has played in all 24 games over the past two years. Senior defensive end Siaosi Hala'api'api, started the final five games of 2014, and has a total of 14 career starts in 34 games played. Finally, junior nose tackle Chase Appleby has 13 career games under his belt, including one career start.

"When you look at the defensive end position, Eddie Yarbrough has been really a prince of a guy to coach," said Bohl. "He works really hard. He's an experienced player. He's gotten a step faster, and he has maintained his body weight while increasing his strength and quickness. Eddie had an outstanding spring.

"Siaosi (Hala'api'api) made very good improvement during spring ball, and of course has a lot of experience at the other end spot. So we have two established starters there.

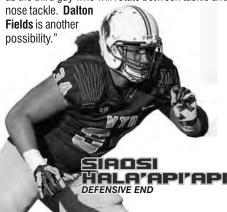

"Trevor Meader was a guy who walked on last year, and proved to be a capable player.

"The other young player who looks like he will be able to play after his family and he talked to several doctors this offseason is Seth Edeen. We were very encouraged by his play as a true freshman last season, and we're excited to have him back."

"Uso Olive will play at the three technique (defensive tackle) this year. He's about 305 pounds now. He has great strength and quickness. Uso is able to establish the line of scrimmage, which is key to playing defensive tackle in our defense. We lost a significant player in Pat Mertens, who did a yeoman's job as a senior last year.

"Chase Appleby is an undersized nose tackle, but he uses his quickness and intelligence to his advantage.

"We're looking for a third guy in the middle. Sidney Malauulu has probably established himself as the third guy who will rotate between tackle and

Umebackers

With the loss of three senior starters, including 2015 NFL Draft pick Mark Nzeocha, the Cowboys' linebacking corps will see a new blend of athletes and a new emphasis on speed at the position. Junior Lucas Wacha provides starting experience, with 15 career starts over the past two seasons. Sophomore strong-side linebacker/ nickel back Tim Kamana has eight previous starts to his credit, which all came at safety in 2014. Like Kamana, junior Will Tutein, has moved to linebacker after starting four games at safety in 2014. The other two players who were moved to linebacker during the offseason was former tight end Eric Nzeocha, who moved to middle linebacker, and former running back D.J. May, who will now play strong-side linebacker/nickel back.

"We shuffled the deck at linebacker in the spring. There are a lot of new players at our linebacking spots," said Bohl. "The most experienced player we have is Lucas (Wacha). He played a lot of football the last two years. He is at the WILL (weak-side linebacker) position, which I think is the most technical position among our linebackers. It is certainly the position where we have had more plays made from and that is why we have Lucas there.

"What we have in each of our three starters at the linebacker position are guys who can run in the low 4.6s in the 40. What we are finding in the Mountain West is guys have to be able to run well. Will Tutein is backing Lucas up. Will is a young man who walked on last year and ended up playing significant time at the safety position. We moved him up closer to the line of scrimmage, which probably fits his skill set better.

"Going to the MIKE (middle) linebacker, a pretty significant transition is being made by Eric Nzeocha, who we moved over from the tight end position. He's a guy who's got great speed. He is a little undersized right now, but in the Tampa 2 that MIKE linebacker has got to really be able to run.

Devin McKenna is more of an in-between the tackles type guy. A solid, throw-back type linebacker.

"Over at the SAM (strong-side) position, we decided to move Tim Kamana there after he played strong safety for us last year. You're also going to see D.J. May integrate and hit the field at that position. While we didn't list D.J. on the depth chart coming out of spring due to him being injured, we expect him to play a significant role this year.

We will also play some Nickel utilizing personnel at this position. Luis Bach is another young player from Germany who walked on to our team, and he is slotted as another SAM/Nickel Back.

"What we are transitioning to with our linebackers is to have a group that all have speed."

Secondary

The secondary for the Cowboys does return a couple of experienced players at cornerback in returning starter Robert Priester and senior Tyran Finley. Priester started seven of the final eight games his true freshman season last year. He was injured in the second to last game of the season against Boise State, forcing him to miss the season finale at New Mexico. Priester proved to be a playmaker his freshman season. He recorded nine tackles against Florida Atlantic, including seven solo stops and forced one fumble. At Hawai'i, Priester was credited with eight tackles, seven of which were solo tackles, and forced a fumble. He added a fumble recovery versus Utah State. The other cornerbacks are talented, but young. Redshirt freshmen C.J. Jennings and Anthony Makransky and sophomore Ryon'e Winters are all in contention for playing time. Don't be surprised if some talented true freshmen don't jump into the competition, as well.

The safety positions also feature a group of talented, but young, players led by redshirt freshman strong safety Chavez Pownell Jr., who exhibited his talents with an outstanding performance in the Spring Game. Adam Pilapil, a converted wide receiver, was the projected starter at free safety coming out of the spring. Like cornerback, it wouldn't be surprising to see some of the talented incoming freshmen challenge for playing time.

"At cornerback, a guy who we didn't list on the spring depth chart -- again because injuries kept him out of spring -- was Robert Priester, who played a lot of football for us last year as a true freshman, "said Bohl. "You'll see him as one of our corners, and we're excited to have Robert back.

"Other guys battling at the cornerback position include C.J. Jennings, who redshirted last year as a freshman. He did some good things during spring ball. Anthony Makransky is another redshirt freshman, who is a very capable player. Tyran Finley played a lot of football for us last year as a junior. He's done some good things, but needs to continue to work on his consistency. And Ryon'e Winters has showed flashes.

"At strong safety, Chavez Pownell Jr. had a really good Spring Game and showed some good signs throughout the course of spring. He's a guy who redshirted last year. He is a very capable tackler and has a good understanding of our defense. Marcus Epps did some good things, as well, at that spot.

"Adam Pilapil, at free safety, we flipped over from a wide receiver position. He is a really smart player, who has good instincts."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Two of three starters return on special teams for Bohl. Junior punter Ethan Wood and junior long snapper Brendan Turelli have both started at their respective positions the previous two seasons.

Wood came into his own his sophomore season and will be one of the top returning punters in the Mountain West in 2015.

Turelli has been an extremely reliable long snapper since taking over as the starter in the first game of his true freshman season.

At place-kicker, gone is three-year starter Stu Williams, who graduated. Justin Martin, a junior who is coming off a redshirt season in 2014, enters fall camp as the starting place-kicker. He does have experience in the past as Wyoming's kickoff specialist. A couple other kickers will join the competition in fall camp.

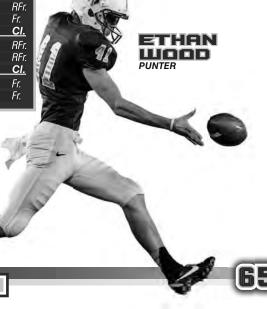

"We feel good about our snapper. Brendan Turelli has started the past two seasons, and has been very consistent," said Bohl.

"We also feel very good about our punter, with Ethan Wood back for his junior season after starting for the Cowboys each of the past two years.

"The position where we don't have a returning starter is place-kicker, with the graduation of Stu Williams. Justin Martin finished spring as our projected starter at place-kicker. We have some other guys coming in this fall, and we will evaluate all of them in fall camp.

"In terms of kickoffs, Justin has good ability, and Ethan can kick off too. But we need to solidify our place kicking."

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

Craig Bohl enters his second year leading the University of Wyoming football program in 2015. Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder." said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record in 2013. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of the past four seasons, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

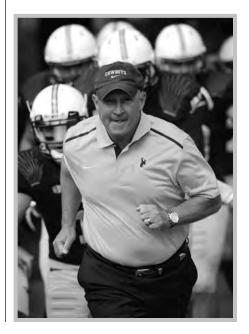

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was also a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year. Bohl was selected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention.

His North Dakota State teams have been built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and were No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 11 years of experience as a head coach at North Dakota State. Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska -- eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

From 2004-2007, Bohl helped lead North Dakota State through its transition to the NCAA FCS level. During that transition period, his teams posted back-to-back 10-1 seasons in 2006 and 2007, but weren't eligible for postseason play due to NCAA rules regarding teams moving up a division.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2015 season will be Bohl's 35th year coaching at the college level, including 13 years as a head coach, 19 as a full-time assistant coach and three seasons as a graduate assistant. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 57 years old when the 2015 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

E STANARD

(Nebraska '89)

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach

Steve Stanard will enter his 28th year of coaching at the college level in 2015 and will begin his 19th year as a defensive coordinator. Stanard will be the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Wyoming Cowboys for the second consecutive season. In his first year coaching the Wyoming defense, he coached linebacker Mark Nzeocha, who was the 19th pick in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Stanard's 2014 Cowboy defense also featured First Team All-Mountain West defensive end Eddie Yarbrough, who will return for his senior season in 2015. Stanard was the linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13, helping the Bison capture NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Titles after each of those two seasons.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66. In Stanard's two years on the North Dakota State staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1.

Stanard has been a part of five bowl games and three national playoff appearances as a college coach.

As the linebackers coach at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13, Stanard helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense each of those two seasons, holding opponents to only 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

In 2013, Stanard coached Third Team All-America linebacker Grant Olson, who was honored as an All-American by the Associated Press. Olson set a school record with 29 tackles in NDSU's 14-7 win over Wofford College in the 2012 NCAA FCS quarterfinals.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07) under former head coach Sonny Lubick, three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the D-coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95) where he was also the head coach his final two seasons.

His defenses at Tulane led Conference USA in pass defense two of three seasons, and he coached seven All-Conference performers and two All-Freshman honorees.

Prior to Tulane, Stanard served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008 for head coach Frank Solich. The Bobcats ranked in the top six of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in: total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense. He coached Second Team All-MAC defensive tackle Jameson Hartke, who also earned Academic All-MAC and Academic All-District honors.

Stanard is very familiar with the Mountain West Conference, having served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State for five seasons from 2003-07. Stanard helped lead CSU to two bowl appearances, the 2003 San Francisco Bowl and 2005 Poinsettia Bowl. Four of Stanard's CSU defenders earned First or Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors, and another 24 earned Honorable Mention All-MW recognition. Linebacker Eric Pauly was an All-2004 and '05 defenses led the conference in pass defense.

Mountain West selection at linebacker and was a three-time Academic All-American. Stanard's 2006 defense ranked in the MW's top four in scoring defense, pass defense, pass defense efficiency, sacks, fewest opponent first downs allowed and opponent third-down conversions. CSU was the only team in the MW in 2006 that had three defenders ranked among the league's top individual tacklers. Stanard's

> Prior to Colorado State, Stanard coached at New Mexico State University for six seasons from 1997-2002 where he served as the defensive ends/outside linebackers coach the first three years and defensive coordinator the final three. Stanard coached linebackers Dwayne Taylor and Jimmy Cottrell at NMSU. Taylor was a three-time All-Conference selection, concluded his career with 364 tackles, 40 tackles for loss and four interceptions. Taylor went on to play in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders and Montreal Alouettes. Cottrell set a Western Athletic Conference single-season record in 2005 with 179 tackles. He went on to earn Honorable Mention All-America honors from SI.com and became the first player in New Mexico State history to lead his team in tackles all four seasons.

> > Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, under head coach Tom Osborne. At Nebraska, Stanard saw the Huskers earn seven bowl bids during his time as a student-athlete or coach. After beginning his coaching career at his alma mater, Stanard coached at Nebraska Wesleyan University for five years, serving as the school's defensive coordinator, head coach and an assistant athletic director during that five-year span.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995, also from Nebraska

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children, Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

ENT VI

(North Dakota State '98)

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach

Brent Vigen took over as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach in 2014 and will enter his second season in that role in 2015. He will be entering his 18th year as a college coach and his seventh as an offensive coordinator. Vigen's 2014 Cowboy offense ranked fifth in the Mountain West in passing offense, averaging 227.8 yards per game, and featured Biletnikoff Award Watch List receiver Dominic Rufran, who was invited to a free-agent camp by the Atlanta Falcons following his senior season. Another Cowboy senior, offensive tackle Connor Rains, signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos. Vigen's Wyoming offense was very effective at protecting the ball in 2014, committing only 18 turnovers to rank No. 4 in the MW and No. 33 in the nation.

Vigen served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Dakota State under new Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl from 2009-13. He began his college coaching career at his alma mater, NDSU, in 1998.

Vigen was the offensive coordinator for each of North Dakota State's three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13. In 2013, Vigen's offense at North Dakota State ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game). No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game). No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in redzone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%). Vigen's 2011 offense ranked No. 5 in the country in red-zone offense (91.1%).

From 2011 through 2013, Vigen helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Vigen coached quarterback Brock Jensen, who earned Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press in 2013 and went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins in the Spring of 2014. Jensen was named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year in 2013. He also was named the: 2012 and 2013 NCAA Division I Championship Game MVP; the 2012 and 2013 College Sporting News FCS Playoff MVP; and the 2013 College Sports Journal FCS Playoff MVP. Jensen ranked: No. 4 in the country in points responsible for in 2013 (264 points); No. 5 in the nation in passing efficiency (167.4 rating); No. 5 in passing TDs (34); No. 9 in the nation in completion percentage (66.3 percent); and No. 23 in passing yards (2,793). Jensen set North Dakota State single-season passing records in 2011, throwing for 2,524 yards and broke that record with 2,793 passing yards in 2013. He concluded his career as North Dakota State's career passing leader, with 8,598 passing yards.

The 2013 Bison offense featured three All-Americans. In addition to Jensen earning Third Team AP All-America honors, offensive tackle Billy Turner was named a Consensus All-American and fullback Andrew Grothmann earned First Team All-America recognition from The Sports Network.

In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while Vigen's 2013 offense also featured 1,000-

Vigen began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Bison from 1998-2000. He became a full-time coach in 2001, coaching the NDSU tight ends in 2001 and the guarterbacks in 2002. He remained at his alma mater as the running backs coach in 2003 when Craig Bohl became head coach of the Bison. From 2004-08, Vigen was elevated to passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and in 2009 he was named offensive coordinator and continued to coach the Bison QBs.

He coached two-time All-America tight end Jared Peck in 2000 and 2001. Peck went on to sign a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos.

Vigen helped to develop two-time Great West Football Conference Player of the Year, quarterback Steve Walker, who earned the honor in 2006 and 2007. North Dakota State was 8th in rushing offense (219.82 ypg) and 19th in total offense (400.09 ypg) in the 2009 NCAA Division I FCS statistics. Running back Pat Paschall led the FCS in rushing yards per game (139.7) in 2009.

As a player, Vigen was a tight end for the Bison from 1993-97. He was part of three NCAA Division II Playoff squads in 1994, '95 and '97. In 1994. he helped lead NDSU to the North Central Conference (NCC) Championship. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Division II Quarterfinals in 1994 and '95 and the First Round of the 1997 Playoffs.

A native of Buxton, N.D., Vigen earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in 1998 and completed his master's degree, also from North Dakota State in 2000. He and his wife, Molly, have three boys, Jake, Grant and Luke. Molly played basketball at NDSU and was a member of the 1996 NCAA Division II National Championship team and three NCC title squads.

Running Backs/Fullbacks

Mike Bath joined the Wyoming Football program from Miami University (Ohio) in 2014. He is entering his 12th season as a coach at the college level. He will coach the Wyoming running backs and fullbacks for the second consecutive season in 2015. In 2014, he coached Cowboy running backs Shaun Wick and Brian Hill who combined for 1,589 rushing yards last season and eight 100yard rushing games. Senior Wick and sophomore Hill both return in 2015. Wick enters his senior season with 2,082 career rushing yards and needs only 42 rushing yards to move into the Wyoming Career Top 10 list. Hill was selected the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance at Fresno State. He accounted for 387 all-purpose vards against the Bulldgos -- 281 rushing yards and 106 receiving yards.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Bath served as the interim head coach at Miami, his alma mater, in 2013. He was named interim head coach on Oct. 6, 2013, and also assumed the role as offensive coordinator at that time after beginning the season coaching the guarterbacks and wide receivers.

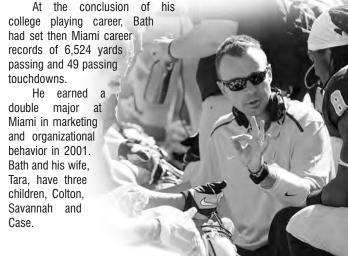

Bath returned to his alma mater in 2011 to coach the wide receivers and tight ends. In 2012, he moved into the role of quarterbacks coach, and coached Miami QB Zac Dysert, who set school records for career total offense (12,678) and career passing yards (12,013). Dysert was drafted by the Denver Broncos in 2013, and was part of a Bronco team that made a run to the Super Bowl his rookie season. Bath also coached wide receiver Andy Cruse at Miami. Cruse signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans in 2013 and was on the Texans' practice squad his rookie year.

Bath began his college coaching career in 2004 as a graduate assistant coach for his alma mater. After serving as a graduate assistant in 2004 and 2005, he was named a full-time assistant in 2006 and coached the RedHawk tight ends for three seasons from 2006-08. Two of his tight ends, Tom Crabtree and Jake O'Connell, went on to play in the NFL.

In 2009, Bath accepted the opportunity to become an offensive coordinator at Ashland University in Ashland, Ohio. After serving as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and wide receivers coach for two seasons (2009-10), he returned to Miami in 2011.

During his time as an assistant coach at Miami, the RedHawks captured three Mid-American Conference (MAC) East Division Championships (2004, '05 and '07) and made an Independence Bowl appearance in 2004.

A three-year starter at quarterback for Miami from 1998-2000, he compiled a record of 23-10 as a starter and led the RedHawks to the MAC East Division Co-Championship as a sophomore in 1998. That team posted a 10-1 record overall and a 7-1 conference mark. Among those 10 wins in '98 was a 13-10 upset victory over No. 12 ranked North Carolina and a 14-13 non-conference victory over Army. His junior season, Miami upset Northwestern of the Big Ten by a score of 28-3 on the road, and his senior season, the RedHawks defeated Vanderbilt of the SEC 33-30 in Nashville, Tenn. Bath was named his team's Co-MVP his senior season.

Special Teams Coordinator/Defensive Ends

AJ Cooper enters his second season at Wyoming as the Cowboys' defensive ends coach and special teams coordinator. He came to Wyoming after serving as a member of the North Dakota State coaching staff the previous eight seasons. His coaching career followed an outstanding playing career for the Bison.

In 2014, Cooper coached First Team All-Mountain West Conference defensive end Eddie Yarbrough. Yarbrough will return for his senior season in 2015.

From 2011 through 2013, Cooper helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As the defensive ends coach at North Dakota State, Cooper helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons (2011-13), holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 vards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 vards allowed

In addition to coaching the defensive ends, Cooper served as NDSU's football camp and clinic director. Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08.

Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State include: Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Boyer was also an All-MVFC First Team honoree in 2011 and was a Second Team selection in 2010. He finished his career ranked No. 4 in school history in career sacks, with 27.5. Cooper coached defensive end Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. Jirik also earned Second Team All-MVFC honors in 2012, and concluded his career ranked No. 5 in Bison history in career sacks (26.0). A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn All-Conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013 and an Honorable Mention All-MVFC honoree in 2012.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, Cooper earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors.

Following his college playing career, Cooper signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college career at Glendale Community College. His final season of junior college, he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories -- receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have two sons, Carter Johnson and Cameron Myles.

SCOTT FUCKS

(North Dakota State '95)

Offensive Line Coach

Scott Fuchs will begin his 22nd season as a college coach in 2015. He brings a great deal of knowledge coaching offensive linemen with him to Wyoming as 20 of his previous 21 years of coaching experience have been as an offensive line coach. In 10 of his previous 21 seasons as a college coach, Fuchs has helped coach his teams to either the NCAA Division II or Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs.

In 2014, Fuchs coached senior offensive tackle Connor Rains, who signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following his senior season. Fuchs also coached 2014 Honorable Mention All-Conference offensive guard Chase Roullier, who will return for his junior season in 2015.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, Fuchs was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association First Team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater, the previous five seasons (2009-13) before coming to Wyoming.

From 2011 through 2013, Fuchs helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. In 2011, Fuchs coached Consensus All-America offensive tackle Paul Cornick, and center Joe Lund, who was selected as the FCS Rimington Award winner, which is presented to the top center in the nation each season. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 31 All-Conference performers during his career.

Fuchs has been on coaching staffs that have won nine conference titles during his college coaching career

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

Fuchs offensive lines helped pave the way for North Dakota State to have a 1,000-yard rusher for 11 consecutive seasons. In 2011, '12 and '13, the NDSU offense featured a pair of 1,000-yard rushers each season. The 2011 season was the first time in NDSU school history that the Bison offense featured two 1,000-yard rushers and a 1,000-yard receiver in the same season. Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,105 yards, and DJ McNorton tallied 1,020, while receiver Warren Holloway had 1,003 receiving yards. In 2012, Ojuri (1,047 yards) and John Crockett (1,038) each rushed for 1,000 yards. The 2013 season saw Ojuri (1,398) and Crockett (1,277) duplicate their 1,000-yard seasons of the previous year, while the 2013 offense also featured 1,000-yard receiver Zach Vraa (1,191 receiving yards).

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the First Round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs' first position as a college coach was as a graduate assistant at NDSU working with the tight ends from 1994-96.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

DIE HAI

(Bemidji State '09)

Wide Receivers/Director of Recruiting

Gordie Haug will coach the Wyoming wide receivers for the 2015 season, and will serve as the Director of Recruiting for the Wyoming Football program for his second consecutive vear. Haug was a member of head coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant.

In his new role. Haug will take over coaching the Cowboy receivers for the first time this season. He will also continue to direct all recruiting efforts by the Cowboy coaching staff and will continue to coordinate summer camps.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, and captured two FCS National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota, where he started as a student > assistant for two years (2007-08), moved into a graduate assistant role for two seasons (2009-10) where he worked with the running backs and them became a full-time assistant coach on the staff his final season (2011), coaching the defensive line.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in community health in 2009 and master's degree in sports science in 2011 both from Bemidji State.

PETE KALIGIS

(Washington '94) Defensive Tackles

Pete Kaligis will coach the Wyoming defensive tackles for the second straight year in 2015. He coached senior defensive tackle Patrick Mertens in 2014. Mertens signed as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens following his senior year. The 2015 season will mark Kaligis' 21st season as a college coach.

Kaligis coached the Wyoming offensive line and running backs during his first five seasons at Wyoming. In 2013, he served as assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach. He added the offensive coordinator duties to his responsibilities in February of 2013. Kaligis coached the Cowboy running backs in 2012 and '13. In 2013, sophomore running back Shaun Wick nearly reached the 1,000-yard plateau, rushing for 979 yards. Kaligis' first four years at Wyoming, he coached the Cowboy offensive line.

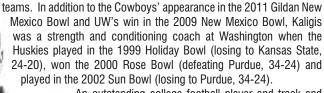

In 2013, Wyoming ranked 22nd in the nation in total offense (472.8 yards per game) and 26th in passing offense (282.4 yards per game). The Wyoming offense ranked second in the Mountain West Conference and 38th in the nation in passing offense in 2012, averaging 265.4 yards per game.

The 2012 season saw Kaligis coach First Team All-Mountain West center Nick Carlson. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the second time his senior season. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Carlson was also named to the 2012 Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List, and was one of only 10 national finalists for the ARA Sportsmanship Award as a senior. Carlson (Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and senior offensive tackles Josh Leonard (Oakland Raiders) and Kyle Magnuson (Oakland Raiders) each were invited to NFL camps as free agents following their senior seasons.

In 2011 the Cowboy offense ranked No. 11 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed, allowing only 12 sacks in 13 games. Three UW offensive linemen earned Mountain West All-Conference honors in 2011. Senior tackle Clayton Kirven and junior center Nick Carlson were named Second Team All-Mountain West. Sophomore offensive guard Tyler Strong earned Honorable Mention All-Conference recognition. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the first time in 2011.

Kaligis coached sophomore center Carlson in 2010. Carlson went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

During his previous years coaching at the college level, Kaligis has been a part of 12 teams that advanced to postseason play, including five bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision

An outstanding college football player and track and field athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and former head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. He was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put.

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife, Kristine, have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

CURT MALLORY

(Michigan '92)

Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Secondary

Curt Mallory is the newest member of the Wyoming coaching staff. He came to Wyoming in the spring of 2015 after coaching the Michigan secondary from 2011-14. Mallory will coordinate the Wyoming defensive pass game and coach the Cowboy secondary.

In 2014, the Wolverine defense ranked No. 7 in the nation in total defense, allowing only 311.3 yards per game. Michigan also ranked 15th in rushing defense (117.7 yards per game), tied for 19th in pass defense (193.7 yards per game) and 27th in scoring defense (22.4 points per game).

During his time in Ann Arbor, he coached Michigan defenses that ranked in the Top 15 in the NCAA in pass defense in 2011 and 2012. Four Wolverine secondary members earned All-Big Ten honors from 2011-13. The Wolverines defeated Virginia Tech in the Allstate Sugar Bowl to conclude the 2011 season and posted an 11-2 record. They appeared in the Outback Bowl at the conclusion of the 2012 season and the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl in 2013. Mallory was also involved in working with all aspects of Michigan's special teams.

Prior to his four-years at Michigan, Mallory was the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at the University of Akron for the 2010 season. He also assisted with the special teams at Akron

For five seasons from 2005-09, Mallory coached at the University of Illinois where he was the defensive secondary coach the first two seasons (2005-06) and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator for his final three seasons from 2007-09. The Illini earned a spot in the Rose Bowl versus USC following the 2007 season. His Illinois defense led the Big Ten in sacks and tackles for loss in 2008. In 2007 on way to the Rose Bowl, the Illini held opponents to under 20 points per game, and in 2006 his secondary ranked second in the Big Ten in fewest passing yards allowed (182.2 yards per game). The '06 secondary also limited opponents to only 11 passing touchdowns on the season and only 6.5 yards per pass attempt. He coached Illinois cornerback Vontae Davis, who earned All-America honors and was a two-time semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the top defensive back in the nation each season.

Mallory's five years at Illinois were preceded by three seasons as the secondary coach at another Big Ten school, Indiana University, from 2002-04. He spent the 2001 season as the secondary coach at Central Michigan. He earned his first full-time coaching position at Ball State in 1995, and coached there for the next six seasons, from 1995-2000. Mallory coached the linebackers his first five years at Ball State, and took over the secondary for his final season in 2000. The Cardinals most successful season during that span was 1996 when they earned a berth in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Mallory began his coaching career as a student assistant at Michigan in 1992, and was part of a team that earned a Rose Bowl berth. He then worked for two seasons (1993-94) as a graduate assistant at Indiana for his father, Bill Mallory, who was the head coach of the Hoosiers. The '93 Indiana squad played in the Independence Bowl.

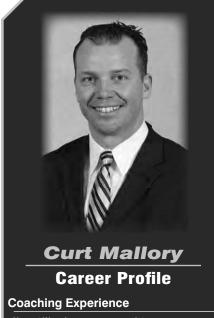

Over the span of his coaching career, Mallory has helped guide seven teams to bowl games.

Curt Mallory played linebacker at the University of Michigan from 1988-91, earning two letters. He played his first two seasons for legendary Michigan coach Bo Schembechler and his final two under Gary Moeller.

The Wolverines won four consecutive Big Ten titles during that time span, appeared in three Rose Bowls and one Gator Bowl and ended the 1988 season ranked No. 4 in the nation and defeated USC, 22-14, in the Rose Bowl.

Part of a football family, his father, Bill Mallory, was an NCAA Division I head coach for 27 seasons from 1969-96. He was the head coach at Miami of Ohio (1969-73), Colorado (1974-78), Northern Illinois (1980-83) and spent the final 13 seasons of his career at Indiana (1984-96). Curt's two brothers, Mike and Doug, also both played at Michigan and are in the coaching profession. Mike is the special teams coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL, and Doug was most recently the defensive coordinator at Indiana University.

Born May 9, 1969, Curt Mallory earned his bachelor's degree in sport management and communications from Michigan in 1992, and completed his master's degree in outdoor recreation at Indiana in 1999. Mallory and his wife, Lori, have three children -- sons James and Sam and daughter Margo.

JOHN RICHARDSON (North Dakota State '10) Cornerbacks John Richardson took over as cornerbacks coach for the Wyoming Cowboys in 2014

John Richardson took over as cornerbacks coach for the Wyoming Cowboys in 2014 and will serve in that same role in 2015. He coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012 and '13. He was a member of the NDSU staff since 2009, spending the 2009 and '10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011, '12 and '13.

From 2011 through 2013, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

As a coach at North Dakota State in 2011, '12 and '13, Richardson helped the Bison rank No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 points per game in 2011, 11.5 points per game in 2012 and only 11.3 points per game in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked: No. 3 in the FCS in total defense (255.9 yards per game); No. 2 in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.59 rating); No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game); and No. 8 in passing yards allowed (164.6 yards per game).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU: led the nation in total defense (234.5 yards allowed per game); was No. 1 in fewest first downs allowed (12.67 per game); ranked No. 2 in pass defense (140.6 yards allowed per game); and ranked No. 4 in rushing defense (93.9 yards allowed per game).

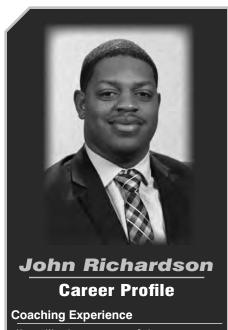

In 2012 and '13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft. NDSU defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

A starting cornerback, himself, at NDSU in 2007 and '08, Richardson made 85 tackles over his two-year career, with 57 solo tackles, 19 passes defended, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

Originally from Compton, Calif., Richardson completed his bachelor's degree in sports and recreation leadership in December 2010. He earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Honor Roll honors his senior year of 2008.

He and his wife, Sahfiya, have one son, John Michael.

Director of Sports Performance/ Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach

Zach Duval became Wyoming's new Director of Sports Performance and Head Football Strength Coach in 2014 after serving in the same role at the University of Buffalo for four seasons from 2010-13.

In May 2015, Duval was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa). The honor is the highest given in the strength and conditioning coaching profession.

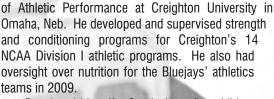

While at Buffalo, Duval coached All-America linebacker Khalil Mack. Mack, who earned First Team All-America honors his senior season, was taken as the fifth overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Mack set the NCAA career record for forced fumbles, forcing 16 fumbles over his four-year career. Mack was named the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Defensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2013. He was also selected as the recipient of the 2013 Jack Lambert Award, given to the nation's top linebacker by the Touchdown Club of Columbus, Ohio. He finished second in voting for the 2013 Butkus Award. Buffalo earned a berth in the 2013 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl versus San Diego State.

Duval brings a wealth of experience in strength and conditioning both at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level and in private business.

He began his coaching career as a student assistant in the University of Nebraska "Husker Power" strength training program in 1994. Duval was elevated to the position of football strength coach at Nebraska from 1997-2002. During his nine years with the Huskers, NU won the 1994, 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

In 2002, Duval entered private business, founding the Xplosive Edge performance center. His company developed specialized computer software to be utilized by strengthtraining professionals. Duval's company was involved in both athletic performance and management of a wellness spa. During his time in private business, he co-owned and managed The Performance and Wellness Institute in Greeley, Colo. He was in private business for six years from 2002-07. He returned to Nebraska for the 2008 season.

Prior to taking over as Director of Sports Performance at Buffalo, Duval was the Director

BRENT VERNON

(Missouri '08)

Director of Football Operations

Brent Vernon enters his third year as Director of Football Operations for Wyoming Football in 2015, after filling the roles of Executive Assistant to the Head Coach and Assistant Director of Football Operations in 2012. In 2011, Vernon served as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting, being promoted from his previous position as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and '10.

In his current role, Vernon coordinates a variety of administrative duties for Cowboy Football, including: planning team travel, monitoring the football budget and helping coordinate team functions.

While serving as the Director of Recruiting in 2011, Vernon was responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

Vernon was Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010. He assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days.

Wyoming's appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl was the sixth bowl game that Vernon had been a part of in his young career. He of course shared in Wyoming's 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime. While a student assistant at Missouri, the Tigers appeared in four consecutive bowl games from 2005-08.

He came to Wyoming in the winter of 2009 from the University of Missouri where he was a student assistant with the Mizzou

Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in Vernon completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

(Metropolitan State '12)

Director of Player Personnel

Matt Gaynor was named Wyoming's new Director of Player Personnel in June 2015. Prior to be hired into Wyoming's new position of Director of Player Personnel, Gaynor had served as a recruiting and operations assistant with Wyoming Football since July of 2013.

A native of Denver, Colo., he assisted the Wyoming coaching staff with many administrative tasks the past two years. He assisted in organizing recruiting efforts for Cowboy football, including: maintaining the recruiting database, organizing recruiting video for later evaluation by the coaching staff, helping host official recruit visits and helping develop and execute marketing and social media campaigns directed at potential recruits. He also assisted in football operations on Wyoming Football road trips.

Gaynor's new responsibilities will include: developing, implementing and directing the strategic planning process for recruiting prospective student-athletes; assisting the Director of Recruiting with recruiting travel of UW coaches and prospective > student-athletes; helping organize on-campus recruiting activities; and assisting with recruiting correspondence.

> He graduated from Metropolitan State University in Denver in May 2012 with a bachelor's degree in sport industry operations and a minor in management.

After graduation, Gaynor served internships with the Denver Outlaws professional lacrosse team in 2012 and the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League in 2013, prior to coming to Wyoming in July 2013. With the Rattlers, Gaynor worked in the scouting and football operations departments.

HALEY DALLES

Cowbov Football Office Manager

Haley Dalles in entering her fifth year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Dalles is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping coordinate summer camps.

Dalles came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

A 2001 graduate of Laramie High School, she grew up on the Dalles family ranch west of Laramie.

JAKE CHAPMAN

Video Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Jake Chapman joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filmers. He is proficient is utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud IPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is also one of Chapman's responsibilities.

Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches. He supervised student assistant filmers.

Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12.

In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

RYAN McGINN

Academic Coordinator for Cowboy Football

Ryan McGinn joined the Office of Academic Support in January of 2012. After working as a graduate assistant for a year, he became an academic coordinator for the football team in 2013. McGinn received an undergraduate degree from Southern Virginia University in history with a minor in business management and leadership in 2011. While at Southern Virginia, McGinn competed in football as a receiver, was a member of the Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society and the Chi Epsilon Omega Business Honors Society and was an Academic All-American. He is on track to earn his master of arts degree in adult and postsecondary education in the spring of 2015. McGinn and his wife Brynn have one daughter, Raegan.

Taylor Stuemky

Academic Coordinator for Cowboy Football and Tutor Program Coordinator

Taylor Stuemky came to the University of Wyoming in November of 2013. She works directly with the Cowboy Football team, and also serves as the Office of Academic Support's Tutor Program Coordinator. Prior to joining the Office of Academic Support, Stuemky worked as a graduate assistant academic counselor for the football team at Kansas State University. She earned her bachelor of science degree in sport and exercise science from the University of Northern Colorado in 2010. Stuemky achieved her master of science degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2013.

Andrew Strop

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for Cowboy Football

Andrew Strop was hired as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for Wyoming Football in the winter of 2014. He came to Wyoming from the University of Buffalo where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach from June 2012 to January 2014. At Buffalo, Strop worked with the sports of football, men's basketball, men's soccer and women's softball. Prior to entering the strength and conditioning field, Strop assisted in the Sports Information Department at the College of the Ozarks from 2009-12 while a student at the Point Lookout, Mo., school. He served on the NAIA Men's Basketball National Tournament Planning Committee at College of the Ozarks from 2010-12. Strop received his bachelor's degree in allied health science from College of the Ozarks in May of 2013. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

QUINN BROWN

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Quinn Brown enters his fourth year in college coaching and third year with the Wyoming Football program in 2015. He again will work with the Cowboy offensive line. Brown was an offensive lineman at the University of Missouri for four years from 2008-11. During that four-year span, Missouri earned four consecutive bowl bids, won the Big 12 North in 2008 and were co-champions of the Big 12 North in 2010. The 2008 Tiger team was ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today poll and No. 19 in the final Associated Press poll. The 2010 Missouri Tigers concluded the season ranked No. 18 in both the final USA Today and AP polls. In 2012, Brown served as the tight ends coach and assistant special teams coordinator at William Jewell College, an NCAA Division II school in Liberty, Mo. An outstanding all-around athlete, he was a high school quarterback and defensive end at Braymer High School in Braymer, Mo., earning All-District honors at both positions his senior year. He was an All-District selection as a defensive end his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. He was four-year letterman in football, basketball, baseball and track. He walked on to the team at Missouri as a quarterback. Brown switched to offensive line as a sophomore, and earned his way onto the depth chart as an offensive guard as a senior. His brother, Colin Brown, also played offensive line at Missouri. The elder brown was drafted in the fifth round by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009. He went on to play four seasons for the Buffalo Bills from 2010-13. Quinn Brown completed his bachelor of arts degree in general studies from Missouri in December 2011.

GREG HOLSWORTH

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Greg Holsworth enters his second year with the Wyoming Football program and first year as a defensive graduate assistant in 2015. Holsworth will assist in coaching the defensive ends and special teams in 2015. He helped the Wyoming defensive coaching staff as a quality control staff member in 2014, analyzing videotape of opponents and helping prepare scouting reports on Wyoming opponents. Holsworth came to Wyoming from his alma mater, Occidental College in Los Angeles, Calif., where he coached linebackers and served as head strength and conditioning coach from July 2013 to July 2014. He was also involved in recruiting for the Occidental Football program. Prior to becoming a college coach, Holsworth served as a high school coach first at Arlington High School in Arlington, Wash., and then as the defensive coordinator at Herbert Hoover High School in Glendale, Calif. Holsworth was an outstanding player at Occidental College from 2008-11. He was a three time All-Conference selection as a linebacker at Occidental College. His senior season of 2011, he was named his team's MVP as he started as both an inside linebacker on defense and a tight end on offense. Holsworth also achieved Academic

All-Conference honors at Occidental in 2009. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Occidental College in 2012.

SHANE LADAGE

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Shane LaDage is entering his fifth year in college coaching and his second with the Wyoming Football program in 2015. LaDage will work with the offensive coaching staff and specifically the Cowboy tight ends again in 2015. He served as the wide receivers and tight ends coach at Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., for the 2013 season. While at Saint Joseph's College, LaDage assisted the offensive coordinator in formulating weekly game plans, taught pass and run-game concepts to the wide receivers and tight ends and coordinated the kick-off and punt return teams. The Puma offense ranked No. 1 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) in total offense (417.6 yards per game) and rushing offense (224.1 ypg) in 2013 and ranked No. 2 in scoring offense (28.6 points per game). He helped guide Saint Joseph's College to its second best record in school history, with an 8-3 overall record, and a tie for second place in the GLVC. LaDage coached 2013 First Team All-GLVC tight end Tyler Callaghan and Second Team wide receivers Julian Walker and Alphonso Hines. Prior to coaching at Saint Joseph's College, LaDage coached at his alma mater, Southwest Minnesota State, for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. He coached the tight ends and was the head strength and conditioning coach for the Mustangs. SMSU's offense set the school single-season record for rushing touchdowns in 2012 (23 TD runs), posted the second best single-season rushing total in school history in 2012 (1,888 rushing yards) and recorded the third best single season in total offense (4,363 yards). LaDage coached 2011 Honorable Mention All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) South Division tight end Cody Condon. LaDage was a four-year starter at Southwest Minnesota State from 2007-10. He earned All-NSIC South Division honors in 2009 and '10, and was a team captain his senior season of 2010. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science with a minor in coaching from SMSU, and also completed his master's of education in sports leadership at SMSU.

DOM MIROCKE

Administrative Graduate Assistant

Dom Mirocke enters his second year as a graduate assistant for Wyoming Football in 2015. He will be the administrative graduate assistant for Cowboy Football again this coming season. Mirocke spent the 2012 and '13 seasons as an offensive assistant and offensive quality control staff member with the South Dakota State Football program. He was part of two NCAA FCS Playoff teams while at SDSU. South Dakota State concluded the 2012 season ranked No. 11 in the nation among FCS teams and finished the 2013 season ranked No. 13. Mirocke assisted the offensive coordinator and worked with the quarterbacks, running backs and tight ends during practices. He provided the Jackrabbit offensive staff with weekly breakdowns of opponent tendencies and coordinated film breakdown on opponents. Mirocke helped to develop game plans with the offensive coaching staff. Mirocke also assisted in coordinating recruiting visits by recruits. Before coaching at South Dakota State, Mirocke was the running backs/fullbacks coach and video coordinator at Southwest Minnesota State for the 2010 and 11 seasons. In addition to coaching the SMSU running backs and fullbacks, he also recruited the Minneapolis, Minn.

metro area and southern Minnesota. Mirocke was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter as a tight end at Emporia State University in Kansas from 2006-09. He received his bachelor of integrated studies with an emphasis in physical and health education at Emporia State in 2010, and completed his master's degree in sports leadership at Southwest Minnesota State in 2012.

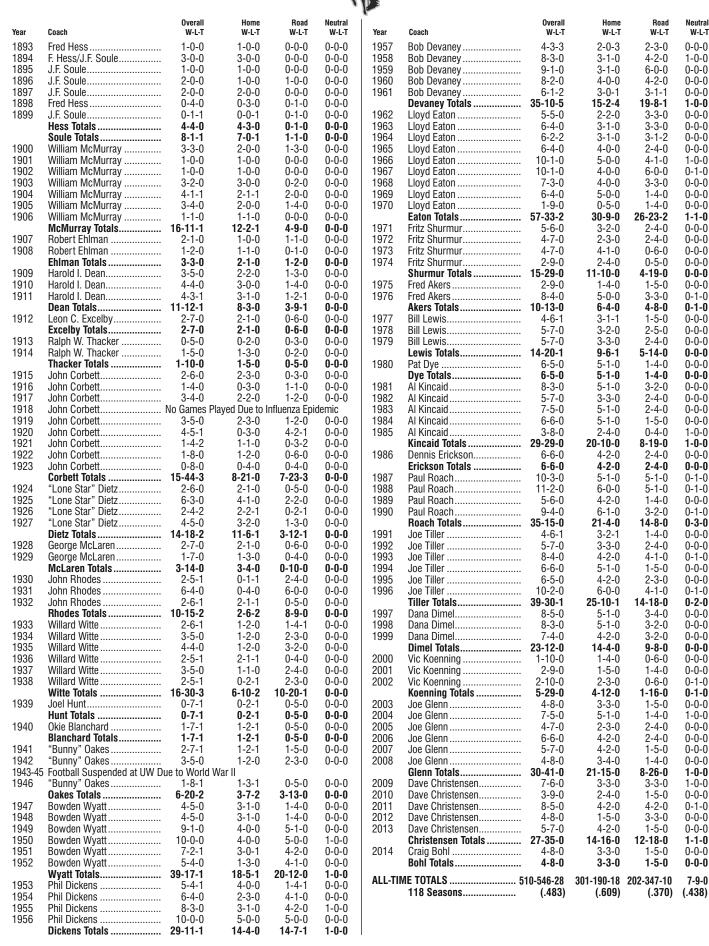

GRANT OLSON

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Grant Olson came to Wyoming in the spring of 2015 from North Dakota State where he was a student assistant coach in 2014. His one year serving as a student assistant coach followed an outstanding college playing career at NDSU from 2010 to 2013. In 2015, Olson will assist in coaching the Wyoming linebackers as a defensive graduate assistant. At North Dakota State in 2014, Olson helped coach the Bison linebackers on way to NDSU's fourth consecutive NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championship. He was an outstanding linebacker himself at North Dakota State, highlighted by earning Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press his senior season of 2013. As a junior, the College Sports Journal named him an Honorable Mention FCS All-American. Olson was selected All-Conference both his junior and senior seasons, and was also selected a team captain both seasons. During his four-year playing career, he helped lead NDSU to a 52-7 record and three FCS National Titles in 2011, '12 and '13. He played in 55 career games for the Bison, and set a school record with 29 tackles in a single game in NDSU's 14-7 win over Wofford College in the 2012 NCAA FCS quarterfinals. The 2011, '12 and '13 Bison defenses led the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons.

He was named a First Team All-Mountain West selection both as a sophomore in 2013 and as a junior in 2014 in voting by conference head coaches and media. Yarbrough was named to the 2014 Rotary Lombardi Watch List and the 2014 Ted Hendricks Award Watch List. He ranked No. 2 among all Mountain West defensive linemen in tackles as a junior after leading all MW defensive linemen in tackles as a sophomore. The Aurora, Colo., native has made 194 tackles and 28.5 tackles for loss during his college career. He will enter the 2015 season ranked No. 15 among active FBS players in tackles for loss and No. 6 among active FBS defensive linemen, averaging 0.81 TFLs per game (28.5 TFLs in 35 career games). Yarbrough is poised to become Wyoming's all-time leader in career tackles for loss. He needs 7.5 TFLs his senior season to move into the top spot.

2014: He had another outstanding season, earning First Team All-Conference accolades from conference head coaches and media for the second consecutive season. Despite drawing the attention of opposing offensive lines, he still ranked No. 2 among all Mountain West defensive linemen in tackles, averaging 5.2 tackles per game (63 total tackles in 12 games). He had 10.5 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks on the year. Yarbrough had a season high nine tackles at Michigan State, including a quarterback hurry. Wyoming 17, Montana 12

Aug. 30, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

Running back Shaun Wick rushed for 134 yards and D.J. May added 96 on the ground to guide the University of Wyoming football team to a season-opening 17-12 victory over Montana. The Cowboys also rolled out an improved defense, holding the Griz to just 42 yards on the ground.

A near-capacity crowd of 25,243 saw the Griz hold a slim 6-3 lead at halftime. The Cowboys used momentum from a fourth-down stop to craft a five-play, 58-yard drive that ended with a five-yard touchdown run from Wick, as the extra point put Wyoming up 10-6 with five minutes left in the third. Following a Montana punt, May ripped off a 58-yard scoring scamper to push UW's advantage to 17-6.

Defensively, Mark Nzeocha tallied 12 tackles, just two shy of his career high, and added a sack and three pass breakups. Senior linebacker Devyn Harris and

Wyoming 17, Air Force 13

Sept. 6, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

Redshirt senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard threw for 282 yards and two touchdowns, including the game winner with 58 seconds left, to guide the University of Wyoming football team to a hard-fought 17-13 win over Air Force. The Cowboys trailed the majority of the game in front of 21,246 fans, before outscoring the Falcons 10-3 in the final quarter to pick up home win number 300.

After the Falcons added a field goal with 3:25 left to take a 13-10 lead, Kirkegaard helped the Cowboys take control of the contest with a steady hand. He went 6-of-7 on UW's final drive, including a 25-yard strike to sophomore wide receiver Tanner Gentry to take the Pokes to midfield and a three-yard touchdown toss to senior tight end J.D. Krill for the game-winning score. Air Force would drive to UW's 15 in the final minute, but couldn't manage a last shot at the end zone.

GAME #3

No. 2 Oregon 48, Wyoming 14 Sept. 13, 2014

Autzen Stadium Eugene, Ore.

Redshirt senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard passed for 284 yards and two TDs, but it wasn't enough to overcome the No. 2 ranked Oregon squad, as the University of Wyoming football team lost 48-14, suffering its first loss of the year.

Wyoming took an early 7-0 lead over the Ducks in front of a crowd of 56,533, but UO reeled off 41 unanswered points to take control in the second and third quarters. Junior running back Shaun Wick tallied 122 yards rushing and sophomore wide receiver Tanner Gentry hauled in his first career TD reception. Redshirt sophomore running back D.J. May added 143 yards of total offense, along with one receiving score.

Early on, UW's defense stood tall on Oregon's first possession. The Ducks went 13 plays and 78 yards, all the way to the UW 2. But three straight rushes were turned away, culminating in fourth-down stop from the Cowboy defense.

Wyoming 20, Florida Atlantic 19

Sept. 20, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

The never-say-die University of Wyoming football team used an 18-yard field goal from senior place-kicker Stuart Williams with just 15 seconds left to capture a dramatic 20-19 victory over Florida Atlantic. Williams got his opportunity to win for the Cowboys after an 88-yard pass from senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard to senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran with just 2:05 remaining in the game. The play took the Pokes from their own 8-yard line to FAU's 4-yard line. Three rushes ran the clock down and Williams booted it through for the second game-winning kick of his career. A Wyoming victory looked like it might not happen after Florida Atlantic stopped the Cowboys on a fourth-down attempt with 2:09 left in the game and assumed possession on UW's 8-yard line. But senior linebacker Mark Nzeocha forced an Owl fumble on first down that senior linebacker Jordan Stanton recovered. Kirkegaard connected with Rufran on the next play and the rest was history.

#9 Michigan State 56, Wyoming 14 Sept. 27, 2014

Spartan Stadium East Lansing, Mich.

Junior running back Shaun Wick finished with 85 yards rushing and one touchdown, but the University of Wyoming football team suffered a 56-14 defeat at the hands of No. 9 ranked Michigan State.

Senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard threw for 188 yards and one TD, but the MSU defense limited Wyoming to just two scores all day. Wick's 57-yard touchdown gallop drew UW to within one score at 14-7 early in the first quarter, but the Pokes couldn't overcome six-straight scoring drives from MSU in the first half.

In front of a crowd of 74,227 in Spartan Stadium, Wyoming couldn't overcome MSU's 533 total yards. Mistakes plagued the Pokes as well, with UW turning the ball over three times and committing five penalties. UW tallied 286 yards, gaining

Hawai'i 38, Wyoming 28

Oct. 11, 2014 Aloha Stadium Honolulu, Hawai'i

Senior wide receiver Jalen Claiborne had a career-best 121 receiving yards and a touchdown, but the University of Wyoming football team dropped a 38-28 road contest to Hawai'i.

Wyoming held a 28-17 lead with 2:02 left in the third quarter, but allowed Hawai'i to reel off 21-unanswered points. With the loss, UW gave up possession of the Paniolo Trophy, the traveling trophy that goes to the winner of the game. The Pokes posted a season high in points and forced three turnovers, leading to 14 points. But the UW defense surrendered 513 yards and four second-half touchdowns.

Quarterback Colby Kirkegaard threw for two TDs and 221 yards. Junior running back Shaun Wick ran for 121 yards and a score. Senior linebacker Mark Nzeocha led Wyoming with 13 tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

San José State 27, Wyoming 20 (OT) Oct. 18, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

Running back Shaun Wick rushed for 97 yards and the University of Wyoming football team battled San José State to overtime before falling 27-20 in front of a Homecoming crowd of 19,627 fans in War Memorial Stadium. The Cowboys' game-winning field-goal attempt with two seconds left in regulation went off the right upright and the Spartans scored a touchdown on their first overtime possession, before holding the Pokes out of the end zone on defense. The Cowboys and Spartans were deadlocked in a 10-10 affair through three quarters, before combining for 20 points in the fourth quarter. UW looked to have the game in hand with a three-point lead late in the game, but SJSU converted a 50-yard field goal with 42 seconds left. Back came the Cowboys with a dramatic drive for a 46-yard field goal attempt that would have won the game, but Stuart Williams' kick bounced off the right upright to send the game to an extra period. The Spartans found the end zone with a four-yard touchdown pass on their possession and held Wyoming on a fourth-and-three attempt to secure the victory.

Colorado State 45, Wyoming 31

Oct. 25, 2014 Hughes Stadium Fort Collins, Colo.

Freshman running back Brian Hill had his best day as a Cowboy with his first two career scores, but his efforts weren't enough to stop the University of Wyoming football team from suffering a 45-31 loss to rival Colorado State.

In the 106th edition of the "Border War", Wyoming struggled to contain a potent offensive attack from Colorado State. The Rams scored on seven of their 11 total drives in the game and tallied 558 yards of total offense.

But UW's offense played well in the second half, piling up 275 yards and scoring 28 points. Senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard enjoyed a strong performance, finishing with a career-best 335 yards passing and two scores. His last two tosses of the day were touchdowns, as he found senior wide receiver Jalen Claiborne from 32 yards out and sophomore wideout Tanner Gentry on a throw with just 15 seconds left for a 38-yard TD for UW's final score of the day.

Wyoming 45, Fresno State 17

Nov. 1, 2014 Bulldog Stadium Fresno, Calif.

It was a performance for the record books, as freshman running back Brian Hill tallied 387 all-purpose yards to set the school and conference all-time mark in a 45-17 win for the University of Wyoming football team.

Wyoming dominated Fresno State on the ground and through the air, racking up 694 yards of total offense. The Pokes converted 10-of-15 third-down conversions to possess the ball for nearly 37 minutes. The win broke a four-game losing streak for the Cowboys. It was Wyoming's first win ever in Fresno over the Bulldogs.

The rookie Hill posted five runs of 20 or more yards en route to the school's second-best rushing performance (281 yards) and added 106 receiving yards. He bested the previous MW high of 378 all-purpose yards by Deon Long of New Mexico in 2011 and the UW record of 327 by James Loving vs. Houston in 1987. Hill was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week

🍒 GAME #10 🛼

Utah State 20, Wyoming 3

Nov. 7, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

Running back Brian Hill posted another impressive effort with 122 rushing yards, but the University of Wyoming football team dropped a 20-3 Mountain West contest to Utah State. The Aggies jumped out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter, but the Cowboys hung tough and Stuart Williams kicked a 37-yard field goal in the second quarter to cut the Utah State lead to 17-3 at halftime.

Playing just their third weeknight home game in program history, the Pokes allowed 17 points in the first 10 minutes of the game, including Aggie scores on an 80-yard punt return and a 66-yard rush. The Cowboys battled through the adversity to hold USU off the scoreboard in the second and third quarters.

Wyoming looked to be gaining momentum in the fourth quarter with two drives into the Aggie red zone, but interceptions ended both drives. A fourthquarter field goal by Utah State made the final score 20-3.

GAME #11

Boise State 63, Wyoming 14

Nov. 22, 2014 War Memorial Stadium Laramie, Wyo.

The University of Wyoming football team was within seven points of Boise State early in the second quarter, but the Broncos rolled up 32 unanswered points on way to a 63-14 victory in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium.

BSU took an early lead thanks to two first-quarter touchdowns, before UW started to gain momentum with an 11-play drive that covered 74 yards in five minutes. Freshman running back Brian Hill capped it with a 6-yard touchdown run to pull the Pokes within 14-7 with 12 minutes left in the half. That would be as close at the Cowboys could get as the Broncos added two more touchdowns in the second quarter and four in the third, before Wyoming scored again.

Hill rushed for 65 yards and both UW touchdowns on 21 carries. Senior quarterback Colby Kirkegaard completed 10-of-14 passes for 74 yards before being knocked out of the game with an injury.

Nov. 28, 2014 University Stadium Albuquerque, N.M.

The 2014 season ended for the University of Wyoming football program with a 36-30 road loss at New Mexico. Wyoming had its chance to win it in the final seconds, only to throw an incompletion on fourth down to lose to New Mexico in front of 18,489 fans at University Stadium.

With 59 seconds left, the UW defense gave the Pokes a chance to snag the victory. The Lobos lost possession on a fourth and short attempt on an errant pitch with less than a minute remaining. UW took over possession at its own 36-yard line. On 3rd-and-10, Kirkegaard found sophomore Tanner Gentry for a 43-yard pass with just 32 seconds remaining, taking the ball down to the Lobo five-yard line. But three out of the next four plays ended in incomplete passes, including the final pass from Kirkegaard, which glanced off the hands of Gentry in the end zone.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

LARRY BIRLEFFI,

flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARGUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 17th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

2014-15 in Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed an outstanding year in 2014-15. In football, the second annual MW Football Championship game took place on December 6, 2014, at Albertson's Stadium in Boise, Idaho. West Division champion Fresno State made its second straight appearance in the title game, while Mountain Division champion Boise State entered the contest for the first time. The nationally-ranked Broncos won the match-up, 28-14. The MW sent a league-record seven teams to bowl games, with Air Force, Colorado State, Nevada, San Diego State and Utah State joining the Bulldogs and Broncos, marking the eighth consecutive year that at least five teams represented the league in postseason play.

Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences and faced No. 10 Arizona in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. The Broncos won their third consecutive Fiesta Bowl appearance, downing the nationally-ranked Wildcats, 38-30.

Mountain West men's basketball regular-season co-champions San Diego State and Boise State received at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament, joining MW tournament champion Wyoming who earned the league's automatic bid. It marked the 15th time in 16 years the Conference has sent multiple teams to the Big Dance. Colorado State also took part in postseason action, playing in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

In women's basketball, Boise State made its third NCAA tournament appearance after capturing the MW tournament crown and earning the Conference's automatic bid. Mountain West regular-season champion Colorado State and Fresno State advanced to the Women's National Invitation Tournament, while New Mexico received a berth in the Women's Basketball Invitational.

Colorado State made its 20th consecutive appearance at the NCAA volleyball tournament, earning the league's automatic bid after capturing the MW regular-season crown. The Rams earned the right to host the NCAA First and Second Rounds at Moby Arena in Fort Collins, Colorado, and advanced to the Regional Semifinals.

In women's soccer, San Diego State advanced to the NCAA tournament for the third straight year after clinching both the MW regular-season and tournament crowns.

The New Mexico men's and women's cross country teams swept the Mountain West titles for the sixth consecutive year and went on to earn spots in the NCAA Championships, where they were joined by the women's team from Boise State and the men's team Colorado State. The Lobo women recorded a school-history-best third-place finish at the NCAA Championships, registering their fifth straight top-10 performance.

A trio of New Mexico student-athletes earned first-team All-America honors to highlight the Mountain West accomplishments at the 2015 NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships. Sammy Silva finished sixth in the women's Mile (4:35.44), Adam Bitchell was sixth in the men's 3000 Meters (8:02.72) and Allan Hamilton leaped to a sixth-place finish in the men's I ono Jump (75'-4-75'')

Five institutions represented the Mountain West at the 2015 NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving Championships. Student-athletes from Air Force, Boise State, Nevada, San Diego State and San José State competed in 18 of the 21 events and recorded five All-America Honorable Mention performances.

For the 16th consecutive season, the Mountain West sent at least three teams to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals. San Diego State earned the league's automatic bid and was joined by New Mexico and UNLV with at-large invitations. In addition, San José State's Cody Blick made his third straight postseason appearances as an individual at the NCAA Regionals. The Aztecs and Rebels both advanced to the NCAA finals and SDSU made the cut (top 15) for the fourth and final round of stroke play. For San Diego State, it was its third finals in the last five years, while UNLV made its second appearance in the last three seasons. The Rebels have made 27 straight NCAA Regional appearances, an NCAA record for the most consecutive regional appearances by a team.

On the women's side, three MW teams advanced to the NCAA Women's Golf Regionals for the 13th time in league history. San Diego State earned the Mountain West's automatic berth and was joined by San José State and UNLV, who earned at-large invitations. Three individuals, Boise State's Genevieve Ling, Fresno State's Madchen Ly and New Mexico's Manon Mollé also represented the Mountain West at the NCAA Regionals. The Rebels advanced to the NCAA finals, placing 16th as a team. UNLV's Dana Finkelstein advanced to the fourth round of the finals and finished tied for 18th with an 11-over 299.

A league-record three men's tennis teams earned bids to the NCAA tournament. The Boise State men's squad garnered the league's automatic bid and was joined by at-large selections New Mexico and San Diego State. The New Mexico women's team received the MW automatic bid to the 2015 NCAA Tennis Championships. In addition, Fresno State's Sophie Watts (women's) and New Mexico's Samir (filkhar (men's) participated in the singles postseason competition, while Nevada's Blaga Delic and Sheila Morales-Hidalgo qualified for women's doubles play. In softball, multiple teams advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2011. MW champion Fresno State

In softball, multiple teams advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2011. MW champion Fresno State earned the league's automatic bid by virtue of winning the regular-season title, while San Diego State made its eighth consecutive appearance in the NCAA Championship with an at-large nod.

Mountain West student-athletes produced eight first-team All-America honors, including five on the men's side, to highlight the Conference's achievements at the 2015 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Boise State senior Jordin Andrade finished as the runner-up in the men's 400 Hurdles with a time of 49.24, which is the second-fastest mark in MW history. In the men's 1500 Meters, three MW competitors garnered first-team All-America honors with Air Force's Zach Perkins finishing second (3:55.08) for the second time in three years (2013), New Mexico's Peter Callahan collecting his second-straight fourth-place result (3:55.22) and Boise State's David Elliott placing eighth (3:55.86). New Mexico's Logan Pfilibsen received first-team All-America honors with a sixth-place finish in the men's Pole Vault. Pilibsen, a senior, cleared 17-8.50" to establish a new personal record.

On the women's side, Boise State's Marisa Howard earned her second consecutive top-five finish in the women's 3000 Steeplechase, placing fourth to earn first-team All-America honors. The senior, who was runner-up in 2014, finished the 2015 race with a time of 9:37.84, which is tops all-time in the Mountain West. New Mexico's Calli Thackery crossed the line sixth in the women's 5000 Meters with a time of 15:47.15. Her finishing time is the fourth-fastest in the history of the Conference. Alice Wright, a redshirt freshman at New Mexico. placed eighth in the women's 10.000 Meters (33:41.86) to earn first-team All-America honors.

a redshirt freshman at New Mexico, placed eighth in the women's 10,000 Meters (33:41.86) to earn first-team All-America honors. In baseball, MW Tournament champion San Diego State captured the league's automatic bid and made its fourth NCAA tournament appearance in seven years. During the season, the league also recognized the accomplishments of former Aztec head coach and student-athlete Tony Gwynn by naming the annual Player of the Year award in his honor.

Mountain West Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the Conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 17th season of competition in 2015-16, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $300 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape over the past few years, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012, and San José State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member on July 1, 2012, while Colorado College became a member in women's soccer on July 1, 2014.

Thompson's leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, including becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the college football landscape - both in the previous Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format and in the current College Football Playoff (CFP) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the collegiate postseason football system fair for all universities.

Through its first 16 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 69 bowl games, amassing a 38-31 (.551) all-time record in those contests. Over the last 11 seasons, the MW has captured the Bowl Challenge Cup four times (2004, 2007, 2009, 2010) and owns the second-best win percentage in bowl games among the 10 FBS conferences with a 31-23 mark (.574). The Mountain West is the only conference to win the Bowl Challenge Cup four times since the award's inception in 2002.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

During his eight years at the Sun Belt, he spent the majority of his time addressing national trends and challenges in intercollegiate athletics, television exposure, issues relating to conference membership and promoting corporate involvement. In 1997-98, the Sun Belt instituted a comprehensive sportsmanship policy, which earned Thompson designation as a 1998 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport. Under Thompson's leadership, the Sun Belt was active in expansion as it continued to strengthen its posture nationally, adding Florida International University and the University of Denver.

Thómpson is an integral part of the national landscape in intercollegiate athletics, holding many prestigious NCAA posts. He currently sits on the NCAA Division I Council and Football Board of Directors, and is also a member of the CPP administration. In addition, Thompson is a member of the College Football Officiating Board of Managers, LLC, and a consultant for the Task Force on Commercial Activity in Intercollegiate Athletics. He also has served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee (1995-2000) and was appointed Chair of the committee in July 1999, completing his term September 1, 2000.

Over the tenure of his career, Thompson has been a member of the Executive Committee and the Director's Cup Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), as well as the governing NCAA Council and various Council subcommittees. He has also played a prominent role in hosting numerous men's and women's NCAA postseason basketball tournaments in St. Louis, Atlanta, New Orleans and Denver.

Prior to its merger with the Sun Belt, Thompson served as the first and only commissioner of the American South Conference, which boasted an NCAA national champion in women's basketball during its first year. The American South also gained immediate national cable television exposure on ESPN and sent numerous teams into NCAA postseason play during the conference's four-year history.

Preceding his move to commissioner, Thompson served four years as the Director of Communications for the Metro Conference in Atlanta. While at the Metro, he directed the communications operations and administered conference championship events. Thompson originated the Metro Conference Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association, began a weekly radio program with over 300 affiliate stations, and originated a weekly satellite video program involving all Metro institutions. He also took on administrative duties such as coordination of officials, scheduling of tournament and regular-season play, and handling of legislative rules interpretations.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, earning numerous CoSIDA publication awards. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kinos.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

-UW-ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING PRESIDENT RICHARD McGINITY

Richard McGinity

Dick McGinity was appointed as the University of Wyoming's 25th president by the UW Board of Trustees on Jan. 16, 2014.

Before that, Dr. McGinity served as interim vice president for academic affairs. He joined the UW faculty in 2007 as the Bill Daniels Chair of Business Ethics.

In addition to serving as a UW faculty member in the College of Business, his public service includes over seven years as a director of the Wyoming Business Council, including co-chair in 2004-05; and five years as a naval aviator during which he served in Vietnam, earning two air medals.

After earning his undergraduate degree from Princeton and graduate degrees (MBA, DBA) from Harvard, Dr. McGinity pursued a career in venture capital and private equity: first as a partner in a Boston-based venture capital fund, and then as founder of a boutique investment banking firm which served owners of private firms seeking to build enterprise value through growth, acquisitions and equity transactions.

Dr. McGinity served on the research faculty of Harvard Business School, where he wrote numerous case studies, co-wrote (with Ray A. Goldberg) a book about economic development and agribusiness, and wrote his doctoral dissertation on competition in the meatpacking industry from 1945 to 1960.

Dr. McGinity has served on the boards of numerous privately owned and publicly traded companies, including Canada Southern Petroleum Ltd., where as chairman he led that company's successful defense against a hostile takeover attempt by Petro-Canada.

Dr. McGinity maintains a residence in Crowheart, Wyo. He loves being in the wilderness on horseback and is a licensed professional guide.

TOM BURMAN

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

From the time Tom Burman was named Athletics Director at the University of Wyoming on Oct. 9, 2006, to today, Wyoming Athletics has enjoyed some of its most memorable moments in school history. Also during Burman's past eight-plus years as athletics director, he has hired some of the most accomplished head coaches in University of Wyoming history, fundraising efforts have been unmatched and the academic success of UW student-athletes has been exceptional.

The memorable moments include Wyoming Cowboy Basketball winning the 2015 Mountain West Basketball Tournament Championship and earning an automatic bid to the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. Wyoming Football secured a dramatic, double-overtime victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl and followed that up with an appearance in the 2011 New Mexico Bowl. The Cowgirl Basketball team captured the WNIT National Championship in 2007, and earned the school's first appearance in the NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament in 2008. The Cowboy wrestling program has also enjoyed success in multiple NCAA Tournaments during Burman's tenure.

Among the nationally-successful head coaches that Burman has hired is his most recent hire of head football coach Craig Bohl in December of 2013. Bohl led North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS national championships in 2011, '12 and '13, was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 and was part of two FBS national championships as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska. in 1995 and '97.

The other nationally-successful coaches that Burman has hired include head men's basketball coach Larry Shyatt, who was part of two national championships in 2006 and '07 as associate head coach at Florida. Burman hired head wrestling coach Mark Branch, who was part of four NCAA Championships as associate head coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, and won two individual NCAA titles as a competitor at OSU in 1994 and '97. Current track and field coach Bryan Berryhill is a fourth UW head coach who has achieved a national title and was hired by Burman. Berryhill captured individual NCAA national championships in the indoor 1-mile run and outdoor 1,500-meter run in 2001 at Colorado State.

Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels in Burman's eight-plus years directing the UW Athletics department. Numerous facility projects have also been completed under Burman's direction.

Academically, Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes are achieving at exceptional levels.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our studentathletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Specific accomplishments that have been achieved during Burman's tenure as Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming include:

Student Services

- Under Burman's leadership, the University of Wyoming has increased resources in the areas of academic success and student-athlete well-being by over 100 percent.
- Increased funding of academic support for student-athletes has resulted in unprecedented success -- most recently demonstrated by Wyoming's 2013-14 Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores released by the NCAA in May of 2015. Those most recent APR scores resulted in eight of UW's 17 sports teams securing all-time high scores, with two programs, women's tennis and men's golf, achieving perfect scores of 1,000, earning them national recognition by the NCAA
- The 2014-15 academic year also saw several academic highlights, including 233 studentathletes across 63 different academic majors achieving a 3.00 or better spring semester grade point average. Of those 233 student-athletes, 131 achieved a 3.50 or above spring semester gpa and 43 earned perfect 4.00 gpas for the spring semester.
- Burman's commitment to student-athlete well-being is evident in the addition of several key staff devoted to improving the overall athletic and academic experience for student-athletes. These new staff members include: a full-time athletics department team physician, a sports nutritionist, and additional sports medicine, sports performance and academic support staff members.
- At the conclusion of the 2012-2013 season, the University of Wyoming swept the Mountain
 West Conference Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year awards as Luke Ruff of Cowboy Football and Chaundra Sewell of Cowgirl Basketball were named the recipients. It marked only the second time in the history of the Mountain West Conference that both Female and Male Scholar-Athlete Awards went to individuals from the same university.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Wyoming Athletics set a new annual fundraising record of $12.8 million in pledges and gifts to UW Athletics for the 2013-14 fiscal year.
- Cowboy Joe Club revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to over $5 million as of the end of the 2015 fiscal year.
- In 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history.
- Burman has spearheaded over $100 million in facilities projects during his time as athletics director, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007); construction of the $22 million Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites addition (Fall 2010) to War Memorial Stadium; extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; completion of a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility (Spring 2011); a new $1.2 million golf practice facility (Summer 2014); and Phase I of a $30 million two-phase renovation to the Arena-Auditorium (Fall 2014).
 Phase II of the AA renovation is planned to begin after the conclusion of the 2015-16 season.
- Construction of a new High-Altitude Performance Center is on the horizon to benefit all UW student-athletes. The proposed $44 million facility would be funded by $24 million in private donations and $20 million in matching funds from the state of Wyoming that was allocated with the support from the Wyoming State Legislature and Governor Matt Mead.

Competitive Excellence

In the spring of 2011, Burman lured Larry Shyatt away from his position as associate head coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of Cowboy Basketball. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings. The Cowboys reached the Top 25 of the USA Today Coaches Poll during the 2012-13 season and defeated No. 5 ranked San Diego State in the 2013-14 season before capturing the 2015

Tom Burman

Mountain West Basketball Tournament Championship and earning an automatic bid to the 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

- Wyoming football has made two bowl appearances during Burman's tenure as athletics director. The Cowboys won the 2009 New Mexico Bowl and earned a second appearance in the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl
- Burman hired Mark Branch as Wyoming's new wrestling coach prior to the 2008-09 season.
 Branch led Cowboy Wrestling to a 19th-place finish at the 2012 NCAA Championships. That was the best finish for the Cowboys since 1996. He has been named the Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year three times at Wyoming.
- The 2014 women's soccer season saw the Cowgirls advance to the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship game, while head coach Pete Cuadrado was named 2014 Mountain West Coach of the Year.
- The women's tennis team advanced to the 2015 Mountain West Conference championship match, and head coach Dean Clower earned MW Coach of the Year honors.
- Cowgirl Basketball has achieved unprecedented success under the direction of head coach
 Joe Legerski. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game in Laramie. In 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth.
 In both the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, Wyoming again received bids to the WNIT where it advanced to the third round both seasons. The 2012-13 Cowgirl squad also earned a bid to the WNIT's first round.

Scheduling

- Burman scheduled the most-anticipated event in the history of War Memorial Stadium when the No. 9 ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers came to Laramie on Sept. 24, 2011, for the first time. It marked only the second time that a Big Ten football team had appeared in Laramie.
- Burman also negotiated the 2009 appearance of the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns in War Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns made their first-ever appearance in Wyoming and went on to play for the 2009 National Championship, finishing as the national runner-up.
- In addition to Texas (2009) and Nebraska (2011), Burman has also negotiated future football contracts to bring the following teams to War Memorial Stadium: Oregon (2017), Washington State (2018), Missouri (2019) and Texas Tech (2022).

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center. He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from September 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being tabbed by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history.

Burman began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. Before entering a career in college athletics, Burman worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilber & Associates in McLean, Va., from 1990-92.

Burman earned a bachelor of science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Coraopolis, Pa., in 1991.

Burman is 49 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966. He and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Drew and Nathan.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT & GUIDING PRINCIPLES

MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the development of tomorrow's leaders by creating an environment that promotes personal growth, academic and athletic excellence in a progressive, inclusive, and transparent manner. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will support the overall University of Wyoming mission, provide an outstanding fan experience, encourage community engagement, and serve as a source of pride for alumni, supporters, and the state of Wyoming.

CORE VALUES

Dedication to Student-Athletes

We will promote the well-being of student-athletes and provide opportunities for academic, athletic, and personal success. We will foster academic excellence, graduate student-athletes, support their development as citizens, and prepare them to be leaders.

Integrity

We will demonstrate integrity in all areas. We are dedicated to financial stability, rules compliance, diversity, and personal accountability.

Respect

We will celebrate a climate of mutual respect, inclusiveness, loyalty, and sportsmanship by recognizing contributions to our teams, our department, and the university.

Competitive Success

We will endeavor to be the very best when representing the University of Wyoming and our state. We are committed to providing the resources and personnel for our teams to achieve success.

Tradition

The legacy of the University of Wyoming athletics is proud and strong. We will honor our outstanding tradition.

Excellence

We believe in a spirit of comprehensive excellence. We will strive for excellence in all we do.

Wyoming's Outstanding Football Facilities

War Memorial Stadium

Since 2004, over $30 Million has been invested in War Memorial Stadium to renovate the upper west side, renovate the upper and lower east side and construct the Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, with the goal of enhancing the gameday atmosphere for all Wyoming football fans.

New FieldTurf Surface Installed at Jonah Field (Summer 2013)

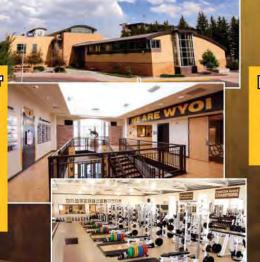

The most recent addition to Wyoming's football facilities was the installation of a new FieldTurf playing surface on Jonah Field in the summer of 2013.

The Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites opened in 2010, with 12 suites and 256 club seats.

Rochelle Athletics Center (Summer 2001)

The $9.4 Million Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center opened in the summer of 2001. The RAC includes a weight room, academic center, sports-medicine center, football coaches' offices and the Cowboy Football locker room.

Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007)

Wyoming's $11 Million Indoor Practice Facility opened in the fall of 2007, contains a full-size, 100-yard football field and over 80,000 square feet of practice area.
